Sunny skies and calm waters greeted swimmers at the annual OCC Invitational Swim on May 10. The packed field of 134 swimmers launched from Kaimana Beach to navigate the technical 1.1 mile course out through the channel, and around several buoys. After a sprint up the stairs and on to the Outrigger Beach, participants basked in their achievement and enjoyed a special Saturday brunch.

Former University of Hawaii star Steve Allnutt was the first swimmer across the finish line, with two of the top female swimmers in Hawaii following in second and third. Lectie Altman, a top swimmer and elite local triathlete finished second with Taylor Ritenberg finishing third.

The first Outrigger member to finish was 13-year-old Ethan Bosworth! This fantastic youngster surprised the adults around him by sprinting to a fifth place overall finish, easily winning his age group.

The next Outrigger swimmer across the line was Bruce

Sloan, winning his age group with a speedy swim of 27:16 to finish among the top 15 finishers. Less than 40 seconds later, fellow member Uli Klinke sprinted up the beach to claim second in his amazingly competitive age group.

There were a host of other Outrigger swimmers who made for a fabulous showing for the Club including Diane Corn, Valisa Saunders, and Rachel Ross who all won their age groups.

Special mention goes out to Victor Hemmy and Blake Johnson. As a result of their incredible swimming there will now be a new 75 and over age division to celebrate the accomplishments of these fantastic seasoned swimming experts.

Thanks to smooth water, fast swimming, and good food it was a wonderful event. Thank you to all the volunteers and staff who make this race possible. We look forward to seeing you next year!

Finishing the swim were Uli Klinke, Ward Saunders, Bruce Sloan, Diane Corn, Kim Darling and Laurie Foster.

Blake Johnson and Don Eovino.

Rachel Ross is greeted by daughter Sky during the awards ceremony.

Ethan Bosworth enjoys brunch after being the first OCC finisher.
