Tennis Love-Ins

by John Michalski

Thanks to Bob Gordon, we were able to use the tennis court of the Hale Kai Surf and Racquet Club to hold our 1976 Club Singles Tennis Championships.

The women's singles tennis champion is Eve Anderson, who earned the title by battling the unconventional and determined Nancy Bannick. Other women who made it into the semi-finals included Dede Openshaw and Shirley McKown.

The men's singles tennis champion is Rick Fried, who had to beat runner-up Gulab Watumull for the title. Neal Timon and Joe Tiepel gave strong competition in the semi-finals. The quarter finals saw excellent games by Dennis Berg, Jimmy Dean and Rick Rand.