

135 Enter OCC Invitational Swim

Swimmers from swim clubs throughout Oahu were invited to the Outrigger Canoe Club Invitational Swim on May 22. The ocean swim has proved popular over the years and this year 135 entered and completed the race.

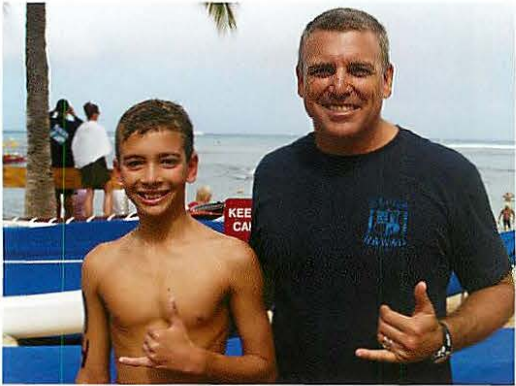

The one-mile course started at Sans Souci Beach, out to a buoy one-half mile from shore, and finished at the Club beach. The two-mile course started at Sans Souci, out to the buoy, turned towards the Kapahulu Groin, around another buoy and finished at the OCC beach.

David Locke was the winner of the one-mile swim and Stephen Allnut came in first in the two-miler.

Outrigger's top finishers were Bob Atkinson and Katherine Nichols in the shorter event. Aukai Gilliland, Noah Deer, Lily Deer and Wil Yamamoto finished fifth to eighth overall in the two-mile.

The Swimming Subcommittee, chaired by Stephan Reinke, awarded pineapples to age group placers, and cookies to the winners.

Following the swim, participants were treated to Sunday Brunch.
