SURF BOARD POLO WILL BE FEATURED AT WAIKIKI SUNDAY

Surfboard polo, outrigger canoe races and other water sports will be staged at Waikiki, in front of the Royal Hawaiian hotel, Sunday at 3:30 p. m.

The surfboard polo committee of the Royal Hawaiian Athletic association announces a winter season schedule of beach sports—Sunday afternoon, February 8, February 22 and March 8.

The committee consisting of Duke P. Kahanamoku, president; Joseph R. Farrington, Charles Amalu, David Kahanamoku, 'Dad' Center and C. Stanford Cost, have named Gay Harris of the Outrigger Canoe club as chairman of arrangements for beach activities.

The competition between the Outrigger Canoe club, Hui Nalu and the Queen's Surf club promises to be keen and fast games are assured.

After the games the spectators will be entertained by the boys burlesqueing every imaginable land and sea sport in the water. This added feature to the program always proves amusing and provokes many laughs.

The public is invited to these beach sports. Seat reservations may be made at the Royal Hawaiian sports desk or at any of the beach hotels.
