ROYAL HAWAIIAN ARRANGES BEACH SPORTS MATINEE

Spectacular water sports, including surfboard polo, outrigger canoe races and other games typically Hawaiian, are programmed to be staged in front of the Royal Hawaiian hotel this afternoon at 3:30 o'clock. The winter schedule announced by the surfboard polo committee is as follows: February 8, February 22 and March 8.

The committee consisting of Duke P. Kahanamoku, president; Joseph R. Farrington, Charles Amalu, David Kahanamoku, "Dad" Center and C. Stanford Cost have designated Gay Harris of the Outrigger Canoe club in charge of arrangements for beach activities. Fast, clean competition between the Outrigger, Hui Nalu and Queen's Surfers is assured.

"Hawkshaw," "Panama" and "Tough Bill" and other boys will amuse the spectators after the games with their own interpretation of land and sea sports as they should be played in the water. Many good laughs and lots of fun is created in this added feature to the program.

The public is invited to these beach sports. Reserved seats are available at the Royal Hawaiian sports desk or any of the beach hotels.
