

Ted Sheppard Wins Open Ocean Swim

Ted Sheppard captured the OCC Open Ocean Swim on May 11. The event, which coincided with jellyfish season, had a delayed start while the group waited for the jellyfish to disappear. They did and the event went off without a hitch with the 33 swimmers racing from Sans Souci towards Waikiki and back to the Club beach.

Sheppard's winning time was 53 minutes, 16 seconds. He was followed closely by Jon Steiner in :54:16 and Bruce Sloan in :54:32.

First woman in was Andrea Woods in :54:44, followed by Diane Stowell in :57:09. O
