PICKED TEAMS IN SURFBOARD POLO

Match Will Be Played At Waikiki Beach Tomorrow Afternoon

Two picked teams of the Hui Nalu will play surfboard polo on Sunday at 3:30 p. m. in front of the Royal Hawaiian hotel.

The players on the teams are as follows, Splash Lyons, William Kahanamoku, John D. Kaupiko, Sargeant Kahanamoku, Harry Field, Joe and Kino Guerrero, Willie and Jimmie Whittle, Joe Akana, Hawkshaw, "Squeeze," Curly Cornwall, Louis Kahanamoku, Frank Telles, Ernest Lishman, Ernie ("China") Wilson, Malcolm Paoa and Melvin Paoa, Sam Kahanamoku and Tough Bill. The officials are Duke Kahanamoku, umpire; Knute Cottrell, referee; Clyde Wilson, timekeeper; Alfred Lee and David Sheldon, goal judges; Malcolm Paoa and Val Richards, sideline judges; John D. Sr. and Gay Harris, five and 10 yard line judges; Charles Amalu, judge; C. Stanford Cost, announcer; David Kahanamoku, marshal of games.

There are noted swimmers on the Hui Nalu teams, such boys as Sam Kahanamoku, singer and swimmer; Frank Telles, who holds the world's record in the waterless high dive; Curly Cornwall, star surfboard water polo player; "Squeeze," famous for his ukulele playing; John D., Town Team football player; Malcolm Paoa, McKinley high school football star; "China" Wilson, star in beach sports; Ernest Lishman, up and coming Hui Nalu aquatic star, and Louis Kahanamoku, Town team player and all-around beach sports star. Willie Whittle is one of the leading lightweight boxers in the islands; Hawkshaw Paia is a very active beach star as well as an excellent surfrider. Harry Field, who supports a massive physique, is a university football star.

There will be a 12 minute intermission between games, and during this period members of the beach clubs will demonstrate how passengers can be saved when a canoe swamps. This demonstration will show the people how safe it is to ride a canoe.

A club surfboard relay is to be held between the Outrigger club boys and Queen surfriders.
