

Outrigger Invitational Ocean Swim

By Laura Miller

Within five days of record swells off Oahu's south shore, the 14th annual OCC Invitational Swim took place on May 9. Flat, clear, calm waters, along with a gorgeous sunny day helped make this year's event a success.

Chris Moore won the two-mile ocean swim in 36 minutes, 51 seconds. Last year's winner, Rick Heltzel followed 11 seconds later--not too shabby considering he just had an arm cast removed.

First OCC members to finish were Ian Emberson and Mike Miller who duked it out to the end. Thanks to Ian's good sportsmanship, they came in together in a time of :41:47.

Mahalo to the volunteers who helped pull this race off without a hitch. OCC's ever faithful include Pam Zak, Peg Danford, our beach attendants Don and Kelly, and Marilyn Kali. (Gerry we missed you this year.)
