Twelve Title Events On Program

The Hawaiian association indoor swimming championships conducted under the auspices of the Women's Swimming association of Hawaii will be held at the Army Navy Y. M. C. A. tomorrow and Saturday. This is the first time in several years that the indoor championships have been contested, and keen interest is being shown by the various clubs of the city. Fort DeRussy, University of Hawaii, Central Y, Nuuanu Y, Hui Makanii Outrigger Canoe Club and Hui Nalu are expected to enter strong teams in the competitions.

Seven championship events for men and five for women will be conducted during the two night affair. In addition to these races there will be events for boys and girls under the ages of 13 and 16. The races for men are the 100 and 500 yard freestyle, the 220 yard breaststroke, the 150 yard backstroke, 400 yard relay and diving.

The women will swim in a 100 yard freestyle, 100 yard backstroke, 100 yard breaststroke, 300 yard medley and a 200 yard relay.

Buddy Crabbe who has been the outstanding swimmer during the past indoor season has filed his entry and will compete in the 100 yard freestyle, the 500 yard freestyle, the 150 yard backstroke and the 300 yard medley. His time for the 100 yard freestyle in the indoor competitions was 54 4-5 sec. 2 1-5 sec. slower than the Hawaiian association record made by J. Weissmuller in 1922.

FT. DERUSSY STARS

Seven entries have been received from Fort DeRussy for the championship events. W. Waidlich, C. Wallace. F. Cox, and J. Jula will swim on the 400 yard relay team, G. Smith has been entered in the 220 breaststroke, C. Wallace in the 50 yard freestyle and W. Waidlich in the 100 yard sprint. R. Louittit, junior and senior outdoor springboard diving champion for 1930 will appear in the indoor championships Thursday night, along with a new diver from DeRussy by the name of F. Gordon. This will be Gordon's first appearance in Hawaiian championships, however, it is expected that he will make a good showing against the more seasoned divers.

The entries for the championships closed last night with Miss Edith Jorris, McKinley high school. No post entries will be accepted. If trial heats are necessary in the championship races they will be held Wednesday night at the Army-Navy Y. M. C. A. starting at 7:30 p. m.
