Beach Boys to Present Original Comedy At Athletic Club Banquet

Tourist Talk, Coconut Oil Rub-Downs, Antics of Amateur Surf Riders Will Furnish Material For Hilarious Parody, With Hawaiian Music and Dancing

High class comedy, as only the Waikiki beach boys can stage it, with hilarious parodies on bathing beauty contests and tourist life on the beach, together with real Hawaiian music and dancing by all-male performers, will feature the entertainment that the Royal Hawaiian Athletic association will provide at the Moana hotel Monday night.

This entertainment will follow the banquet of the three beach clubs in the association, the Hui Nalu, the Queen's Surfers and the Outrigger Canoe club, which will be held at the Moana at 6 p. m. and which will celebrate the closing of the surfboard water polo and beach sports season.

About 120 people participating or interested in the surfboard polo contests will attend the banquet. The entertainment and dance after the banquet will be open to the public, the proceeds going to support the beach club activities.

The setting for the following entertainment will be under the Moana banyan tree, where a stage will be erected. There the beach boys will sing, special numbers being rendered by Chick Daniels' trio, Sam Kahanamoku's trio, with male hula dancing.

The comedy of the program will be introduced with a "bathing beauty" contest, in which husky beach boys, in a variety of more or less ridiculous beach attire, will cavort. Bill ("Tar-Ball") Kahanamoku will be master of ceremonies.

The stage will then be transformed into a likeness of the beach, where, under beach umbrellas, the humorous side of tourists' beach talk, coconut oil rubdowns and surfboard attempts will be presented.

George O'Brien, moving picture star, will participate.

After the entertainment, a dance will be held on the Moana lanai with Johnny Noble's orchestra furnishing the rhythm. Dancing will start at 10 p. m. and continue until 1 a. m.

The committee in charge of the affair is Arthur Benaglia, Duke Kahanamoku, Gay Harris, George ("Dad") Center, David Kahanamoku, Charles K. Amalu, Joseph R. Farrington and C. Stanford Cost.
