Beachboys to Play Prominent Part in Program—Outrigger Boys, Queen Surfers Also to Compete in Canoe and Other Races

KAMEHAMEHA DAY will be appropriately observed at Waikiki Thursday with an elaborate program of water sports and races under the auspices of the Royal Hawaiian Athletic Association.

The feature of the day will be the outrigger canoe sailing races. This unique craft is the type used by ancient Polynesians for long voyages.

The surfboard race is another feature which will be enthusiastically contested. Joe Minor is taking the entries for the tourists' canoe race. The comedy will be provided by the "Beach Frolic" in which the able comedians "Buddy" Crabbe, "Bill" Kahanamoku, "Tough Bill", "Hawshaw" and others will take part.

The admission to the stands of the Waikiki Beach Promenade will be 50 cents, the receipts will go for the prizes and equipment of the contestants. Members of the Hui Nalu, Outrigger and Queen Surfrider clubs will take part in the program.

During the hours of 3 to 5 the Royal Hawaiian band will play at the Waikiki Beach Promenade of the Royal Hawaiian hotel. The festivities will be concluded with a dance at the Moana hotel.
