KAMEHAMEHA DAY PROGRAM IS ANNOUNCED

Water Sports At Waikiki, Parade, Ceremonies and Dance At Moana Planned

Kamehameha Day will be celebrated Thursday with a parade in the morning, Hawaiian water sports at Waikiki in the afternoon, Hawaiian songs and dances at the capitol grounds in the early evening and finally with a dance at the Moana hotel beginning at 9 p. m.

A parade of Hawaiian organizations will leave Aala park at 9 a. m., proceeding down King St. to the Kamehameha statue for ceremonies in honor of the Hawaiian warrior's memory.

According to Rep. Eben Low, who has charge, representatives of all the leading Hawaiian organizations of the islands will be included as well as squads of Hawaiian policemen and firemen and a detachment of Boy Scouts.

U. S. Marshal Oscar Cox will act as marshal of the day in place of Robert Parker, who is ill. High Sheriff John C. Lane will speak. Representative Low will deliver the main address at the statue, speaking in Hawaiian.

The program of Hawaiian music and dances in the palace grounds will begin at 7:30 and continue until 9 p. m. It will be presented under the direction of Mr. Low on a stage erected in front of the palace. Bleachers will be provided free of charge. Loudspeakers will enable those parked in the vicinity to hear the program. The songs will be broadcast by KGU.

Final arrangements for the water sports at Waikiki were completed at a meeting Monday night by Duke P. Kahanamoku, Gay Harris and officials of the Royal Hawaiian hotel.

Beginning at 9:30 a. m. an outrigger canoe sailing race will be held over a course at Waikiki. The program for the afternoon will begin with the senior canoe race at 2:30 p. m. and continue as follows:
