CANOE RACES

At 10 o'clock also outrigger canoes, outfitted with sails, will compete in a race staged by the Royal Hawaiian Athletic association. The course is laid out to stretch from Castle surf near Diamond Head to a point opposite the Halekulani hotel. The start and finish will be in front of the Royal Hawaiian hotel. It is expected that about 12 canoes will be entered in the races. Among the skippers will be Duke Kahanamoku, G. D. ("Dad") Center, David Kahanamoku, Gay Harris, John De Kaupiko, "Dude" Miller, Charlie Amalu, "Toots" Minvielle, S. Perry and Sam Kahanamoku.

The Kaneohe Yacht club will stage a yacht race which begins at 10 o'clock, while 15 minutes later the Pearl Harbor Yacht club's races will start, with events for the S and Star classes and 18-footers.

A service swimming meet has been arranged at the Army and Navy "Y," to take place at 10 o'clock this morning. Golf will play an important part in the day's list of events. The calendar calls for the second round matches in the Oahu Country club annual championship. At Moanalua, the Hawaiian Golf club will hold its June ace tourney, and matches for the Hanford Harrison cup. Out at Waialae the qualifying round for the President's trophy will be held this morning, followed by the first round matches in the afternoon.

SMALL BOAT RACES

In the afternoon boat races staged by the recreation commission and playground directors' association will

(Continued on Page 2 Col. 3)