utes 19 2-5 seconds. The old record of 3 minutes 2-5 seconds was made by Pegman in 1930.

The diving exhibition was exceptionally good although the spectators missed the performances of Dick Degener and Johnny Riley who were unable to perform. John Riley was injured Tuesday afternoon while diving at Fort De Russy, a long splinter running into his leg. He is expected to be able to compete in the platform finals Thursday afternoon.

Frank Kurtz made some exceptionally fine dives from the 35-foot tower. Another feature of the program was the diving of seven year old Bobby Regan, who made swan dives from the 15 and 35 foot towers.

Mrs. Clarita Neher, former Olympic diver, and Miss Evelyn Hudson of Honolulu also appeared in the exhibitions. Others who performed were Mickey Riley, Dutch Smith, Farid Samaika, Fred Gordon, Dick Louttit and Johnny Gomes.

The Hui Nalus won more laurels in the final event of the evening when they defeated the Hui Makanis in the 400 meter relay race. Only two teams were entered. Bud Crabbe took the lead on the first lap and the Hui Nalus held it during the balance of the race. The time of 4 minutes 17 2-5 seconds, establishes a new American record for this distance.
