Outrigger dominates regatta at Waimanalo

OCC logs fourth victory in a row

The Outrigger Canoe Club overcame strong wind, rain and heavy surf at the Waimanalo Regatta yesterday to earn its fourth consecutive Oahu Hawaiian Canoe Racing Association victory.

Outrigger amassed 82 points to second-place Kailua's 52. Hui Nalu was third with 39 points, followed by Healani (32) and Lanikai (25).

In the A Division for clubs entered in 15 races or less, Waikiki Surf Club and Leeward Kai tied for first with 18 points.

The choppy surf led to several disqualifications and false starts.

Still, there were several strong performances. Seven OHCRA crews remained unbeaten: Outrigger's girls' 16, the sophomore men, senior women and senior masters women; Makaha's boys' 13; Kailua's women's novice A, and Healani's sophomore women.

In perhaps the grittiest effort, Kailua completed the men's open 4 race even though the nose of their 4-year-old koa canoe was broken off during a collision. Kailua coach Kamoa Kalama said the damage was repaired and the boat should be ready for the next regatta — the prestigious Walter J. Macfarlane Race on July 4 at Waikiki Beach.

Lokahi captures Hui Wa'a regatta

Lokahi, which practices on the Ala Wai canal, has not lost a Hui Wa'a regatta since 1987.

Despite a drop in turnout yesterday, Lokahi still managed to score 62 points. Manu O Ke Kai was second with 44, followed by Ka Mo'i (42) and Kamehameha (32). This was the first time that as many as four clubs competed in AA Division.

Kaneohe and Windward Kai tied for first with 26 points in the A Division.

Unlike the Waimanalo Regatta, yesterday's Hui Wa'a regatta was held on calm waters. The regatta finished in about five hours, by far the quickest regatta this season.

Top seeds get buried in the sand

☐ Lockwood and Briceno are upset in beach volleyball final

By Randy Cadiente
Star-Bulletin

Adam Lockwood blames himself and not his partner, Carlos Briceno, for losing to the team of Jon Andersen and Kirk Christman in yesterday's final of the Hawaii Beach Volleyball Summer Kickoff tournament on the sands of Waikiki Beach.

But volleyball, beach or otherwise, is a team sport and Lockwood wasn't afraid to say that he let his partner down.

"I didn't play well," said Lockwood last night after losing 15-10 to Christman and Andersen in the double-elimination tournament.

"They played better than us . . . better than myself anyway. Carlos played well and for myself, I'm kind of critical, and I didn't play well."

Christman and Andersen won the top prize of $400 while Lockwood and Briceno got $200.

In the women's final, Lisa Bragado and Mahina Eleneki beat Alison Anthony and Cheri Boyer, 15-7, for the $200 first-place prize money.

Lockwood and Briceno were the top-seeded team in the two-day competition but lost in the first match to Andersen and Christman, who were seeded second, and had to fight through the loser's bracket to face them again.

"We played them during the week, twice in fact, and we split," Lockwood said. "I put the blame on myself. I felt like I was out of shape. I was huffing and puffing.

"You'd think the younger guys would be in better shape coming off the season but Kirk paddles for the Outrigger Canoe Club and I know Jon was in good shape.

"I just didn't play well."

There's a benefit for Keith Haugen to be 'Blue' about

HAWAII
By Dave Donnelly

ABOUT 1,000 people are expected at the Lions Club benefit featuring Keith and Carmen Haugen, regular performers in the Surf Room at the Royal Hawaiian. That may not seem like a lot until you realize the benefit will take place in Lake Bronson, Minn., the little town where Haugen grew up. There are only 300 people living in the town. It's a Fourth of July concert, and in traditional Midwest fashion it should be a humdinger, complete with a parade in which the Haugens will ride. One tune the Haugens are sure to perform is "Minnesota Blue," penned by Haugen five years ago when he visited his hometown. Nothing to do with the cold . . .

THE Fourth of July is just a week away, and already Guido Salmaggi, the "boss" at Spats, has three renditions of the national anthem lined up that day. The first will be from home on the phone to Michael W. Perry and Larry Price at 7 a.m. on KSSK. That'll be followed by another at 8 a.m. at the start of the Outrigger Canoe Club McFarlane Regatta on the beach fronting the Moana. And finally, at 6 p.m., Salmaggi will again sing about the rocket's red glare in front of the waterfall at the Hyatt Regency Waikiki . . .

DID you see the embarrassing typo in a Brand X column yesterday where a singer was reportedly making "pubic appearances" around town? Goodness me! . . . The Peter Dillingham Band is back in the recording studio, and as usual there are a number of "friends" sitting in with them. Among guest artists on the new album will be Nalani Olds, Arthur Lyman, Van Diamond, Leo Nahenahe Singers, Sol K. Bright, Cy Ludington and more . . . Kristy McNichol of "Empty Nest" fame took along brother Jimmy and her grandfather when she returned to the Black Orchid for the Hawaiian spiny lobster she enjoyed so much during a previous visit . . .

Young at heart

THE Cardio Club's owner, Tony Young, took the $5,000 first prize in the third annual Hawaii Aerobics Championship. Among the 25 or so competitors he bested was Crystal Lite national champion Deborah Khacey. Young impressed the judges by going full tilt for 2 minutes to "Shout." That would be enough to give me a cardiac arrest! . . .

MORE than 50 teams have already signed up for the seventh annual Compadres South Pacific Chili Cookoff on Aug. 26. It's a benefit for the Diamond Head Theater — as the Honolulu Community Theatre will be called by then. One application came from Jayne Reese and Larry Roper in Anacortes, Wash. The two are flying in Aug. 17 to be married on Diamond Head, and as part of their honeymoon will form a team in the cookoff.

Guido Salmaggi

Maxine Hong Kingston

The team name is "Marital Blisters." . . .

QUEEN'S Medical Center employees, those who are contributing to the Aloha United Way, are feeling good all over; the Honolulu School of Massage is providing massages as part of the center's two-week, pacesetter fund-raising campaign through July 6 . . .

THE Honolulu Club's Gene Axelrod has been on the move of late, having jetted off on a Canadian fishing trip with pal Kane Fernandez, followed by a Russian jaunt with the Young Presidents Organization. His biggest worry was mixing up his luggage and ending up with ties on the riverbank and fishing boots in Moscow. Axelrod plans to return in time for "Phantom of the Opera," which will be part of the Honolulu Club's 10th anniversary celebration . . .

Talking story

FORMER isle author Maxine Hong Kingston, who now lives in the Oakland hills and teaches at California-Berkeley, is featured on the cover of the slick Image magazine, included in Sunday's San Francisco Examiner. The lengthy story inside, called "Talking Story," was written by Stephen Talbot as he and documentary partner Joan Saffa prepared a feature on the author which airs tonight and again Friday on KQED in S.F. While they were interviewing Kingston their paths crossed with Bill Moyers, who was doing a PBS piece on Kingston for his "World of Ideas" series. The author of "The Woman Warrior" and "China Men" is about to have her third book, "Tripmaster Monkey," released in paperback . . .

Dave Donnelly has been writing on happenings in Hawaii for the Star-Bulletin since 1968. His columns run Monday through Friday.
