53rd Annual Walter J. Macfarlane Memorial Canoe Regatta

Waikiki Beach, Monday, July 4, 1995
Outrigger Canoe Club

Walter James Macfarlane — native Hawaiian businessman, legislator and sportsman became president of the Outrigger Canoe Club in the critical year of 1939. The year before, Outrigger's lease to its long-time Waikiki beach front site had expired and the daunting task of building a new beach front home fell to "Walter Mac" and a dedicated core of club enthusiasts. Through their farsightedness, courage and perseverance, this was accomplished and on February 15th, 1941, on the site where the Outrigger Hotel now stands, the new clubhouse was officially opened and dedicated anew by President Macfarlane in the same spirit as the first club's founding in 1908. . . "to the promotion and perpetuation of Hawaiian aquatic sports." Walter Mac died suddenly in 1943 while on a trip to California. The 4th of July canoe race that year was dedicated to his memory inaugurating a tradition which has been renewed every year since, and making the Macfarlane Regatta the oldest annual canoe race in Hawaii. It is also the only surf race of the year for the competing clubs, where paddlers' skills, combined with luck and the steersman's ability to catch a wave give any crew the chance to capture a gold medal.
