"To encourage, maintain, and perpetuate authentic Hawaiian canoe racing..."

Walter James Macfarlane, known as "Walter Mac", native Hawaiian businessman, legislator and sportsman, died in 1943 while serving as president of the Outrigger Canoe Club. Just a few years earlier, during a decline in membership, he led a drive to negotiate a new sublease from Matson Navigation Company and to build a new clubhouse at the original club site (now the Outrigger Hotel), owned by the Queen Emma Estate. The July 4th Regatta of 1943 inaugurated an annual 4th of July Regatta in his memory. The beautiful sterling silver trophy, which bears the crew names of all the winners in the senior six-man event, was donated in 1943 by Matson Navigation Company.

Walter Mac's family continues to actively support this regatta. In 1972, Walter Mac's sister, Mrs. Walter Flanders, donated the beautiful koa wave trophy. Each year, this trophy is presented to the club that wins the regatta. In 1980, Walter Guild, Walter Mac's grand-nephew dedicated a hand-crafted koa canoe trophy to his grandmother Muriel Flanders. This trophy is presented each year to the winning Boys 18 crew. In 1984, Mrs. Flanders donated a sterling silver bowl for the Senior Women and milo bowls for the Junior and Senior Masters Women. Today, Walter Mac's niece, Alice Guild, will be making the trophy presentations.
