SURF SPICES UP

A south swell of 2-4 foot surf was predicted for this year's 58th annual Walter J. Macfarlane Regatta on the 4th of July at Waikiki Beach. Although the 2-4 foot surf failed to materialize, swells of 1-2 feet provided fun rides for nearly every crew throughout the 36-event program.

The Macfarlane is the only wave race on the Oahu Hawaiian Canoe Racing Association regatta schedule and one of the few times local residents converge on Waikiki's famous beach.

Outrigger led throughout much of the day, but when the final points were counted, Lanikai's wins in the final three events proved too much for the home team. The windward club tallied 86 points to Outrigger's 82. This was Lanikai's fourth straight victory in the Macfarlane.

OCC crews collected 11 victories, including the prestigious Senior Women's race. Other winning crews were the Boys 14, 15 and 16, Girls 15, Novice A Men, Junior, Senior and Open 4 Women, Junior Men, and Men and Women 55s.

The opening ceremony in front of the Outrigger Hotel, the original site of the Outrigger Canoe Club, featured Manu Boyd, Leinaala Heine Kalama and Guido Salmaggi chanting, offering a pule, and singing the Star Spangled Banner.

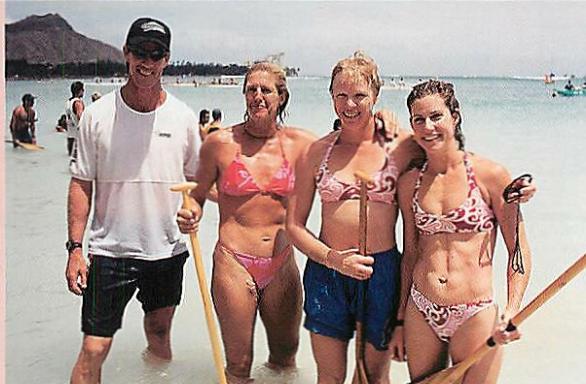

Waves spread across all seven lanes of Waikiki, and many times four of five canoes were on the same wave as they approached the finish line, increasing the excitement for competitors and spectators. Winners were often decided by hundredths of a second. The biggest margin of victory of the day came in the Women's Open 4. OCC steersman Walter Guild, in lane 3, caught backwash on the way out to the quarter-mile flag, and then caught a wave coming in to the flag, finishing the half-mile race 34 seconds ahead of second place Kailua.

Outrigger employed a number of open steersmen and women throughout the day. Seeing action were Jimmy Austin, Walter Guild, Marc Haine, Kisi Haine, Aka Hemmings, Keoni Kino, and Paki Vaughan.

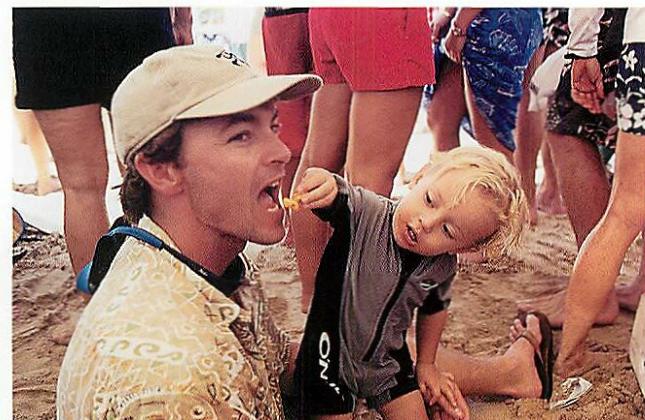

The oldest record in the Macfarlane record book, the Girls 12, was broken in the first race of the day. The record was set in 1982 by OCC's girls, and broken by the Lanikai girls. A total of eight records were broken. The complete results are featured on page 4.

At the end of the day, paddlers gathered at Duke's to award trophies to the winning clubs. A highlight of the ceremony was drinking champagne out of the Matson perpetual trophy for the Senior Men, and the Muriel Flanders Cup for the Senior Women. This year, the honors went to Hui Nalu's men and Outrigger's women. Walter Guild, representing the Macfarlane family, presented the awards.

OCC has finished second in four of the five regattas to date, and is looking forward to the Hawaiian Canoe Racing Association State Championships on August 4 at Hanalei Bay, Kauai.

Walter Guild steered the women open 4 to victory – Katy Bourne, Kavin Hansen, and Allison Guard.

Luke Field shares a treat with dad, Mike Field.

The Junior Men won their mile race Christian Siegfried, Victor Sherman, Jon Bryan, John Eveleth, Paki Vaughan and Jimmy Austin.

The winning Boys 16s were Billy Lawson, Jared Watumull, Makena Carr, Tate Edwards, Benjamin Gottlieb and steersman Marc Haine.
