The Lanikai Canoe Club steered its way to victory in the Walter J. Macfarlane Memorial Regatta yesterday at Waikiki Beach.

Lanikai won 10 of 35 races and finished with 88 points to win its fifth consecutive regatta in as many tries this season. Outrigger was second with 77 and Hui Nalu was third with 41. Hui Lanakila won the A Division for smaller clubs with 41 points.

It was also Lanikai's second consecutive Macfarlane Regatta win. The Macfarlane, sponsored by the Oahu Hawaiian Canoe Racing Association, has been held every year since 1943, making it the longest-running canoe regatta in the state.

"We definitely treat this one special because we know how prestigious it is," said Lanikai head coach Kalani Irvine. "It's nice to win any regatta, but it's especially nice to win this one."

But it did not come without a fight from Outrigger, which hosted the regatta.

Outrigger started fast, winning five of the first eight youth races of the day (boys' 12s, 13s and 14s, and girls' 14s and 15s).

In the middle of the day, the Outrigger women earned victories in the junior and senior races and second-place finishes in the freshman and sophomore races. By the end of the women's senior race, Outrigger held a 60-55 lead over Lanikai.

But Lanikai closed with a flourish, winning four of the last five races (men's open-4, women's open-4, women's masters and men's masters) to overtake Outrigger.

"Our quality was there, but we still can't match Lanikai's numbers," said Outrigger head coach David Horner. "They're entering three or four more races than we are and that seems to be the difference. But you have to give credit to Lanikai. They came through in the pinch when they needed to."

It helped Lanikai to have brothers John and Jim Foti steering throughout the day. According to Macfarlane Regatta rules, every club is allowed to use experienced steersmen throughout the day to ensure safety in the Waikiki waves. For example, Jim Foti was allowed to steer Lanikai's girls' 16 crew to victory.

With waves in the 1 to 2 foot range yesterday, the Foti brothers combined to steer in nine of Lanikai's 10 victories. John Foti led all steersmen yesterday with five victories.

His biggest steering victory came in the men's senior race, which is considered the top division in regattas.

That race epitomized the day. Outrigger led Lanikai through much of the first half of the 2-mile course. But down the stretch, Lanikai and Outrigger caught the same wave. Foti was able to steer the Lanikai canoe on the wave long enough to edge Outrigger by 0.6 seconds.

With that victory, Lanikai's senior men's crew of John Foti, Gio Camuso, Mike Pedersen, Peter Binney, Kai Bartlett and Kalani Irvine was awarded the Walter Macfarlane Memorial Trophy and got to drink champagne out of a silver cup at the awards ceremony. It was the eighth consecutive year that Lanikai won the senior men's division.

"Outrigger was right there, but we had a little bit extra on the curve of the (wave)," said Foti. "And it seems like we've had that little bit extra for eight years running. We've been lucky to keep this streak going, that's for sure."

Outrigger's women earned some redemption by winning the senior women's race. Marc Haine steered the crew of Mary Smolenski, Sara Ackerman, Pamela Clifford, Kaili Chun and Kisi Haine to victory and the Senior Women's Bowl. They, too, drank champagne out of a silver cup at the awards ceremony.

Still, Horner said he realizes Lanikai is the club to beat in the overall standings.

"They're going to be very hard to beat because of their numbers," he said. "But it's not in me and it's not in this club to give up."

Veteran steersman Nappy Napoleon of the Anuenue Canoe Club was also impressive, steering in all four of Anuenue's victories.
