

Hui Nalu Wins Dad Center

The women unrigged their canoes in the water after the Dad Center race.

Outrigger's three women's crews posted good finishes in the Dad Center Long Distance Canoe Race on August 27 from Kailua to the OCC Beach. Hui Nalu won the annual OCC-sponsored event in 3:10:50, but Outrigger's crews finished fourth, 13th and 16th.

Paddling on the Outrigger Red team were Nicole Wilcox, Nicole Bates, Lisa Livingston, Kisi Haine, Trisha Nagatani, Katy Bourne, Mary Smolenski, Paula Crabb, Sara Ackerman and Sasha MacNaughton. Their time was 3:16:49.

On the Outrigger White team were Ann Marie Mizuno, Genie Kincaid, Missy Mowat, Traci Selling, Malia Kamisugi, Kaili Chun, Susan Heitzman, Brooke Berrington, Margie Lehman and Nau Kamalii. Their finishing time was 3:31:02.

Members of the Outrigger Blue team were Kehau Kali, Maile Levins, Janna Arakaki, Karin Hansen, Jennifer Thayer, Laurie Lawson, Carolyn Moss, Heather Moore, Pam Davis and Joan Taylor. Their finishing time was 3:37:56.

The Duke Kahanamoku Long Distance races for men and women on August 20 were canceled due to high surf warnings.

In other long distance races, Outrigger's men won the masters division of the Kailua Ironman competition on August 26. Members of the winning crew were Walter Guild, Mark Rigg, Matt Rigg, Robby Harrison, Courtney Seto and Karl Heyer IV.

Outrigger sent seven crews to the Queen Liliuokalani Races during the Labor Day weekend in Kona.

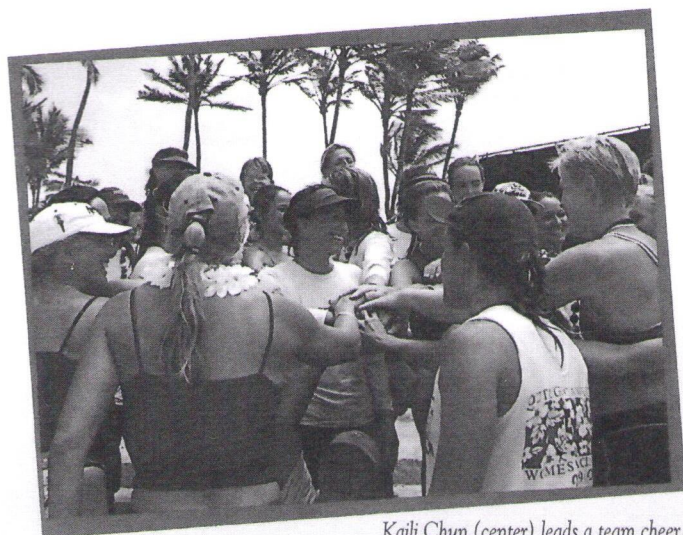

In September, Outrigger distance crews went to Catalina to compete in the Newport-Catalina crossing. The women wound up the season with the Na Wahine O Ke Kai. The men wind up with the Molokai Hoe on October 15.
