

Paddlers Turn Towards Distance

Outrigger's men and women of the sea picked up the distance in August in preparation for the men's and women's Molokai to Oahu races.

Duke Kahanamoku Race

OCC's open men finished third in the 25-mile Duke race on August 22 from Kailua to Waikiki, behind Lanikai and Waikiki Surf Club. Lanikai finished in 3:14:47, with WSC in 3:19:42 and OCC in 3:21:57.

The Masters crew won its division in 3:34:35. Members of the crew were Bill Danford, Tom McTigue, Mike Batungbacal, John Finney, Mark Buck, Brant Ackerman, Bill Mowat, Henry Ayau and Randy Shibuya.

The Senior Masters was third in 4:13:54.

The women raced six miles from Waikiki to Honolulu Harbor and back. OCC did not enter its open crew, but both the masters and senior masters crews were third.

The masters finished in :47:06 behind Kailua and Koa Kai and the senior masters were timed in :51:13 and finished behind Hui Nalu and Koa Kai.

Outrigger hosted the Dad Center Race on August 29 from Kailua to Outrigger. The event was won by Kailua Canoe Club in 3:09:20.

Outrigger's first open crew had passed several crews just before Hanauma Bay and was in second place, when it got hit by a big wave which loosened the ama, making it flat on the water.

Nothing could be done to repair it, without a complete rerigging, so the valiant crew headed for home, finishing seventh overall in 3:19:48.

The crew included Genie Kincaid, Norma Santiago, Tiare Finney, Katie McCrary, Joanna Reinhardt, Lisa Livingston, Diana Clifford, Jennifer Thayer and Liz Perry.

Outrigger's second open crew finished 10th overall after also suffering its own bout with the waves, in 3:24:20. Members of that crew were Jennifer Stahl, Michele St. John, Darcie Wilcox, Janna Arakaki, Elaine Hazzard, Debbie Ing, Stephanie Smart, Jackie Muller and Christiane Bintliff.

The OCC masters finished 22nd overall, and third in their division, in 3:38:01. The crew included Pam Zak, Anne Cundall, Jeanne Jenkins, Kaiulu Downing, Randy Nishimoto, Carol Wilcox, Maureen Kilcoyne, Evie Black and Sharon Bintliff.

This is a great make ahead casserole. Great for the Saturday or Monday night football games. It improves if it sits.

Chicken Enchiladas

5 pounds chicken
2 8-oz. pkgs. cream cheese
1 bottle Avoset cream
1 large Maui onion, chopped fine
2 pkgs. flour tortillas
2 blocks Monterey Jack cheese
4 cans Old El Paso green enchilada sauce

Cook chicken and shred. Set aside. Mix cream and cream cheese. To this mixture, add onions and chicken. Place generous amount of filling onto each tortilla and roll up enchilada style.

Place seam side down in two 8" x 8" glass dishes. Pour 2 cans of sauce over each pan. (At this point, you can freeze dish.)

Before serving, grate 1 block of cheese over enchiladas and bake at 350 degrees for 30 minutes, or at 400 degrees for 30 minutes if frozen.
