OHCRA Championships postponed

The Oahu Hawaiian Canoe Racing Association's Championship Regatta, scheduled for today at Keehi Lagoon, has been postponed (due to Tropical Storm Darby).

The organization convened a meeting of its Executive Board and was awaiting a Saturday evening address by Mayor Kirk Caldwell to determine if Keehi Lagoon — as well as other Oahu parks — would remain open on Sunday.

Three-time defending champion Hui Nalu is aiming to supplement its successful run while perennial powers Kailua, Lanikai and Outrigger also vie for the prestigious title.
