

Healani Takes Canoe Regatta

By WALT SOUTHWARD

HILO—Seven new records were set here yesterday as the Healani Canoe Club of Oahu raced to four first place finishes to take top honors in the State championship canoe regatta.

The Kauai Canoe Club and the Outrigger Canoe

Club tied for second and the Kailua, Oahu, Club was fourth.

HEALANI SET three of the new records, in the boys 13 and under, boys 14 and under and senior men's races.

Kauai set new records in the junior men's and junior women's races and Waikiki Surf Club set new records in the freshmen and senior women's events.

A heavy rain in the morning hours didn't appear to affect attendance any as an estimated 12,000 fans jammed Hilo's bay front to watch the 11 clubs compete.

The regatta was dedicated to P. C. Beamer, an old-time canoe regatta supporter.
