Hui Lanakila Wins DAD CENTER PADDLING RACE

By Sarah Field

On the clear, bright, sunny morning of August 24, three Outrigger Women's paddling crews joined 46 other crews on the starting line of the Dad Center Race from Kailua Beach to Outrigger Canoe Club. The Dad Center distance race is hosted by the Outrigger, so this race is especially exciting for Outrigger paddlers.

This year's race was won by Hui Lanakila Canoe Club in 3 hours 6 minutes 18 seconds in a near photo finish with Hawaiian Team Bradley which finished in 3:06:49. Waikiki Beach Boys finished third in 3:15:14 followed by the OCC Masters in 3:16:55. The Masters were first in the Masters Division.

OCC's Red crew finished 19th in 3:37:18 and the OCC

White finished 26th in 3:47:11.

After a 25 mile race, finishing at our Club is a treat. OCC women paddlers were greeted by OCC paddling men who took care of carrying and unrigging the canoes, we got to take warm showers, our cars were in the parking lot, and we enjoyed delicious food prepared by the Club. But these perks only happen post-race.

During the race to the finish, the Outrigger crews caught as many bumps as possible in the mellow swells, and worked on finding the combos of paddlers that work particularly well together since it was the first distance race of the season for Outrigger women.

OCC Red: Coach Ian Forester, Hilary Denison, Lindsay Wessberg, Julia Fiedler, Tiare Salassa, Pamela Jenkins, Mia Town, Jean Cullinan, MaryAnn Kawakami, Lindsay Chang, Cathi Goldsmith.

OCC White: Keala Kilcoyne, Sarah Field, Erin Emberson, Kim Darling, Erin Emberson, Anella Borges, Coach Liz Perry. Not pictured: Erika Eberhart, Alicia Arnott, Pumehana Davis, Paa Kincaid.
