

OCC Paddlers Win...

The regatta season got off to a winning start with all club paddlers in full uniform at the King Kam Regatta in Kailua.

We had cheerleaders . . .

Some were still a little tired from graduation the night before.

A new Men's Novice A team that had lots of fun with coach Gib Bintliff.

More winners: Sophomore men Steve Van Lier Ribink, Mike Fox, Karl Heyer IV, Billy Foytich, Mike Mason and Keahi Farden.

Members of OCC's 1984 paddling team pose for photographer Monte Costa.

And Win Again...

Our paddlers and their families filled the beaches for the Leeward Kai Regatta in Nanakuli and again came home victorious.

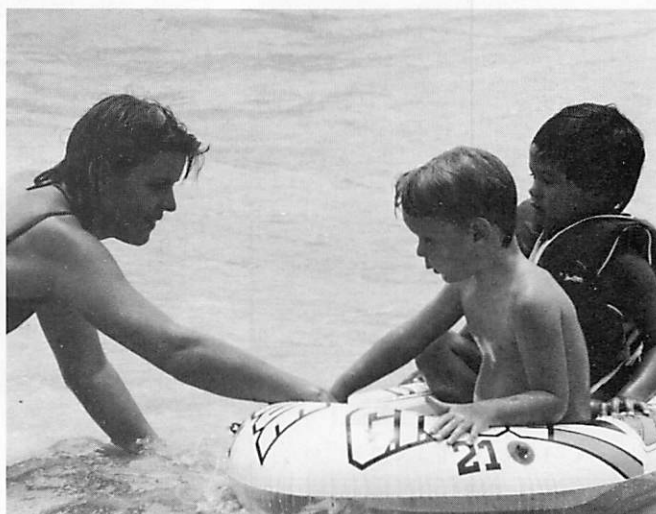

Our Girls' 12 came in all sizes.

Jim Stackhouse found a way to beat the heat while watching his children race.

Henry Ayau poses with the winning Men's Open 4, Todd Bradley, Waipa Parker, Byron Ho, David Ayau.

Mary Mason plays with son Patrick and Taiteri Conner.

And Win Again...

The Kaupiko Regatta in Kaneohe started early with the reading of the Sunday paper.

Our tent was set up with one of the most beautiful views in the islands in our front yard.

Photos by Di Guild & Gerri Pedesky

LILIUOKALANI GARDENS

EXECUTIVE APARTMENT HOMES

Gracious living at Honolulu's prestigious apartment home. Long-term leases for furnished and partly furnished apartments, including a few select penthouses.

UNPRECEDENTED AMENITIES:

- Maid service
- Honolulu Club membership, subject to Honolulu Club membership committee approval
- Personal Services Director
- Pool, jet spa, tennis courts
- Exclusive security
- Doorman, valet

Chaney, Brooks & COMPANY

923-7552

Liliuokalani Gardens
Ala Wai at Wai Nani

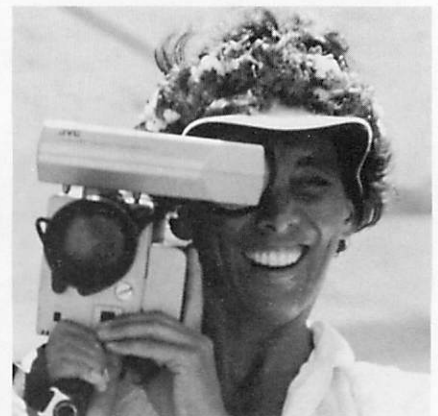

Head Coach Henry Ayau gave us our pep talk and led us in prayer.

Novice Women are tense as they approach the starting line.

What are coaches for anyway? . . . For holding leis and babies, naturally!

Something new this year . . . Sue Oliver mans the video camera. We will see ourselves at the awards banquet at the end of the month.

And Win Again

OCC flag waves over our Waimanalo tent at the Pop Waialeale Regatta where we again were victorious . . . that's 4 in a row!

Freshmen men Rex Horwath, Grady Bintliff, Gregory Rudin, David Ayau and Kala Judd.

Jr. Masters did it again! Bruce Ames, Mike Clifford and Timmy Guard.

Coach Jimmy Pflueger waits and watches for his Boys 18.

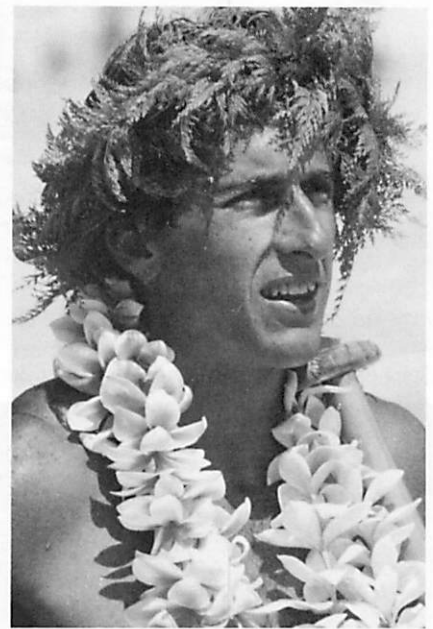

Steve Quinn and daughter.

Hail, hail the gang's all here . . .

Annual party after the Waimanalo regatta was held at the Muller home. Food line was well attended.

Peter Balding Jr. after another winning race.

We're one of your Outrigger
Neighbors.
Come
Get Acquainted!

*wm. rennie, stylist
kaimana beach hotel
2685 kalakaua avenue
honolulu, hawaii 96815
922-6503*

