

Winning paddler Dale Hope carrying the Club's new-style paddleboard

Dale Hope Wins Paddleboard Race-off

To determine the best OCC paddler, a race-off was held December 2 with Dale Hope coming out top man. His time was 29:40. The prize for the race was the privilege of using the new OCC paddleboard in the Waikiki Ocean Race on December 30. The board was shaped by Joe Quigg (fiberglass by Boscoe Burns) and conforms to the new class rules set up by OCC which call for an overall length not to exceed 12 feet, with weight not less than 20 pounds. Others that competed in the race off were Donny Mailer, Paul Manaut and Jay West.
