SOME who made a DIFFERENCE
Outrigger Canoe Club 1908-2000

By Barbara Del Piano
Editor's Note: Each month during the year 2000, writer Barbara Del Piano has highlighted a decade of the Club's history. In this final installment, she writes about the members and employees who have made a difference.

Although the Outrigger Canoe Club has an illustrious history, an outstanding facility, a superb location, and a broad range of activities and amenities to offer, it is YOU, the members and employees, past and present, who have made the Club the outstanding organization that it is today. We take this opportunity to commend these many individuals for their various contributions to the growth and success of the Outrigger.

As the final chapter in our millennium series draws to a close, we are listing some of the people who made a difference. . . whether in the realm of athletics, leadership, finance, service, loyalty or support . . . so that through their hard work and dedication we are able to enjoy this place that their combined efforts over the past 92 years have made possible.

Following are lists of members and employees in a variety of categories who have added to the composite experience that is the Outrigger Canoe Club. If we have omitted some names or categories that deserve recognition, we are truly sorry. We have tried our best to include as many as possible because it is not the few but the many who have truly made the difference.

CELEBRITY CENTRAL

Throughout its existence, the Outrigger has been a magnet for the rich and famous, international celebrities, sports figures, movie stars, jet setters and all manner of notable individuals who have passed through its portals and made a brief but memorable impression.

Well-known members have included Olympian and Tarzan of the Apes, Buster Crabbe; Hollywood idol, John Wayne; movie star Brian Keith; Hawaii 5-0 star James MacArthur; Tom Selleck from Magnum PI; Tennessee Ernie Ford of country music fame, and star of stage, screen and television, Jim Nabors.

One story has it that famous author Jack London inspired Alexander Hume Ford to envision the idea of a club where "men and boys might ride upright on the waves" back in 1907. Whether true or not, over the nearly 100 years since its founding, an impressive list of guests, rivaling a "Who's Who of the Planet Earth" have enjoyed our premises: Douglas Fairbanks, Shirley Temple, Myrna Loy, Spencer Tracy, Dorothy Lamour, Bob Hope, Bob Wagner and Natalie Wood, the Maharajah of Indore, Edward, the Prince of Wales, the Shah of Iran, Joe DiMaggio, Red Skelton, Richard O'Kane (medal of honor winner and famed WWII submarine Captain), Vivien Leigh, Arthur Godfrey, Bing Crosby, Jimmy Durante, Cary Grant, Loretta Young, Eva Gabor, Glenn Ford, Jackie Kennedy with Caroline and John Jr., and Presidents Jimmy Carter and Bill Clinton to name just a few. Even famed rocket scientist Werner Von Braun not only enjoyed dining at the Club but went for a ride in an outrigger canoe.

The names of basketball stars Wilt Chamberlain and Lew Alcindor, aka Karim Abdul Jabar, can be found inscribed on yellowing guest book pages. These people, and many hundreds of others are all part of the collective memory of our Club.

OUTRIGGER WAHINE NO KA OE

Known for its beautiful young women, the Outrigger has had several members on its roster who reached the pinnacle of pulchritude. In 1978, Judi Andersen was Miss Hawaii, Miss USA and first runner up to Miss Universe. In 1999, Candes Meijide Gentry was crowned Miss Hawaii and spouse member Dede Guss reigned as Mrs. Hawaii the same year.

SERVICE WITH A SMILE

One of the Outrigger's greatest assets throughout the years has been a cadre of talented and hardworking employees who have made innumerable contributions to the operation of the Club by providing efficient service and gracious hospitality, as well as those intangible qualities of loyalty and dedication that bind individuals together in a common endeavor.

Oldtimers who were around in the days of the "Old Club" remember Auntie Eva Pomroy for her gentle smile and the genuine concern she felt for all her Outrigger mo'opuna. Her co-worker at the front desk, Malia, also conjures up fond memories. Sunshine, the parking attendant with his ukulele; Richard, Clara and Doris at the Snack Bar; Del, Bobby, Helen Kishida and Choy in the Dining Room were all special people who left lasting impressions as did "Maxie", the Club's Maitre d'hotel.

"Anzai's Banzai", created by popular bartender Katsui Anzai, is still a favorite beverage. Impresario of the kitchen, Chef William Teruya, over his long tenure, whetted many an appetite and made dining at the Outrigger a special experience. Ruby Yabiku, who recently retired, earned the reputation of being a walking encyclopedia of Outrigger History.

Beach attendant "Nunes" and "Sally" Hale who ran the Outrigger Beach Services were perennial favorites among the members and guests alike. Coincidentally, Sally, a confirmed bachelor for many years, finally married....a gal named Sally. She joined the staff and the two Sallys worked side by side for many years.

Unfortunately, personnel records for the Club prior to 1966 have been lost so there are scores of other faithful employees whose names escape remembrance. However, available records show that during the past 35 years 22 members of the Outrigger ohana have completed 25 or more years of employment. For many, working at the Club was their entire career. Some of them are enjoying retirement, some have passed away, others are still with us. We are very grateful to all of them who added so much to our enjoyment and made the Outrigger a better place for all.

Those special members of the OCC staff, in addition to those mentioned above, and who completed at least 25 years with the Club are Sadaemon Furubayashi, janitor; George Fujishige, "jack of all trades"; Luis Pacleb, and Edith Lum, kitchen workers; Charles Hee, Office Manager; Hazel Minatodani who presided over the ladies locker room; bartender Antonio Firme; Office Clerk Mieko Kurihara; Edward Okumoto, Jeanette Van Der Meer and Felomino "Fel" Reyes who provided super service in the Dining Room.

Velma Tanaka and Annie Halliwell, office clerks, and Marie Riede, who handles personnel records, are still with us, continuing as invaluable members of the Business Office staff. Victorino Cadiz, of the men's locker room, Demetrio "Domie" Gose master wood carver and head of maintenance as well as Agnes Kawaguchi of the kitchen staff are also adding more years to their tenure and continuing to keep the Club running on an even keel.

Mahalo to each and every one of you. You truly made a difference.

THE AMBASSADORS OF ALOHA

They were famous around the world. Their names and faces and colorful personalities charmed and disarmed even the most sophisticated and urbane. In the days of "the Old Club", during the 30s, 40s and 50s, the famed Waikiki Beach Boys were "fixtures" around the Outrigger...in the ocean, on the beach and Hau Terrace where visitors were injected with a heavy dose of "local color" by "Panama" Dave Baptiste, "Chick" Daniels, "Turkey" Love, "Blue" Makua, Harry Robello, "Steamboat" Mokuahi, "Kalakaua", Earl King, Splash and Freckles Lyons to name a few.

They taught visitors to ride a surfboard and paddle a canoe, and afterwards helped to ease tired muscles with lomi lomi administered under the hau trees with a generous slathering of coconut oil. They entertained them as they gathered under the coconut palms with voices blended in sweet harmony with the strumming of guitars and ukulele. They made them laugh with their comedic antics and many a jaded heart was wrenched at the thought of leaving these fair islands because of these inimitable "Ambassadors of Aloha".

By the time the Outrigger moved to its new location, the visitor industry had grown and changed and the original Beach Boys had aged and retired; many were gone. But they were part of a by-gone era that left behind a legacy of, as Andy Cummings famous song, Waikiki proclaims, "memories that always will last". The Waikiki Beach Boys indeed made a difference to the Outrigger and to all of Waikiki.

About the Author

Barbara Del Piano's articles in the Outrigger magazine on the history of the Club, have created a great interest in the author.

Barbara is a history buff who has written and published books and articles on her memories of growing up in Hawaii. In addition to her Outrigger articles, she has co-authored two of the popular Ei Nei books and several of her articles have been published in Honolulu magazine.

As Director of Volunteers at Iolani Palace, Barbara wrote several training handbooks for volunteers and was coordinator of the docents training program.

A member of the American Society of Interior Designers, she has worked in the field for many years.
She also was owner of Strawberry Hill, an art and craft supply store on Kapahulu.

The Outrigger Canoe Club is very much a part of Barbara's life. She has been associated with the Club since the late 40s. She has been writing for the magazine for many years and has been chair of both the Historical and Public Relations Committees, and served on the Entertainment Committee.

Barbara was born and raised in Honolulu, attended Roosevelt High School and went to college at Michigan State and Mills College in Oakland. She has been married to Tony Del Piano for almost 50 years. They have two daughters and one son.
