

16th Annual OCC Open Ocean Swim

Nearly 80 swimmers competed in this year's 16th Annual Open Ocean Invitational Swim on July 28 under sunny skies at the Outrigger Canoe Club.

The race is divided into a two-mile long course and a one-mile short course for swimmers over the age of 50. The long race starts at Sans Souci Beach, goes out through the channel, toward Waikiki and back, finishing at the Club steps. The short race starts at San Souci, goes to a buoy at the entrance to the channel and back to the Club steps.

Overall winner this year was Rick Heltzel who finished the course in 40 minutes and 28 seconds. Alex Jampel was OCC's first finisher, completing the course in 44 minutes and 23 seconds. Bruce Sloan wasn't far behind at :45:29.

The first woman to finish was Adrienne Mason, who was fifth overall, in :44:23. Outrigger's first woman finisher was Kristi Torkildson in :48:58. Diane Stowell was next in at :53:35.

In the short-course, Waikiki Swim Club's Linda Kaiser was first in with a time of 21 minutes 48 seconds.

Following the race, swimmers and their escorts were treated to Sunday Brunch at the Club.

OCC swimmers are reminded to begin practicing for the Castle Swim which is scheduled on Sunday, December 1.

The race was put on by Peggy Danford and the OCC Swimming Committee. Thanks to Gerry DeBenedetti for helping with registration, finish line and emcee duties. Thanks also to the escorts who were recruited on the beach to support swimmers.
