

Marc Rocheleau Wins Cline Mann Paddleboard/SUP Race

By Kalani Schrader

Peter and Mary Balding were on hand to greet son Trey after he finished fourth overall in long course. Also there were Trey's wife and son.

The 18th Annual Cline Mann Paddleboard/SUP Race sponsored by Outrigger Canoe Club was held on Saturday, July 15 under sunny skies and moderate easterly winds.

Cline Mann, who passed away in 1996 was one of OCC's most avid ocean sports enthusiasts noted for his contributions to ocean sports and the revival of competitive paddleboard racing in Hawaii. Many long-time Club members and friends were fortunate to spend time with Cline on the Hau Terrace while enjoying a cold Budweiser and watching the surf and afternoon sunsets.

Consisting of both a 17-mile long course from Makai Pier to OCC and a 9-mile short course originating at Maunalua Bay, the race has become known as the warm up to the Moloka'i world championship held later in the month and always attracts a competitive field of local and international paddle boarders and SUP entries.

This year 75 entrants battled it out for bragging rights and to get their names on one of the prized perpetual OCC trophies.

After the safety meeting and traditional pule by legendary Hawaiian waterman Clark Abbey, the long course competitors hit the water at 10 a.m. Tradewinds were in the 15 knot range with a moderate windswell as competitors left Makai Pier and headed around Makapu'u.

First to OCC beach in the premier unlimited paddleboard division with a time of 2:41:05 was local boy Marc Rocheleau, with long time competitor Bert Charlton finishing a strong second. Rising star and OCC's own Trey Balding blitzed the course in 2:51:21 and took down the stock paddleboard division with Anders Jonsson second. Colleen Tessler won the stock wahine division with a time of 3:25:16.

The short course competition was thick as paddlers battled it out during a typical Hawaii Kai run much to the liking of the SUP, paddleboard and junior paddleboard entrants. First to finish overall was Kaihe Chong using a stock SUP with a time of 1:18:19. Puyo Tutuoan won the unlimited SUP division, with Hunter Pflueger winning the stock paddleboard division with a time of 1:23:47.

The prestigious junior trophy went to Aukina Hunt, another OCC homegrown kid with a time of 2:04:14. In addition several 14 and under junior teams competed with the team of Jack Maurer/Izzy Ady taking the victory in a time of 1:44:16. It was great to see the level of competitiveness and participation with the junior racers as their efforts would have made Cline proud.

At the completion of the race, all competitors were treated to a traditional Kanikapila, buffet lunch, cold drinks, prizes and the "E Komo Mai" hospitality our Club is known for. On behalf of the Paddleboard Committee, mahalo to all competitors, sponsors, OCC Beach Services, catering and management staff and Kristen Watumull for keeping this event on track. Special Mahalo to Clark Abbey as well as Manny Kulukulualani and his team at PA'A for the registration and timing for the event. Until next year, a hui hou!
