

Fong, McKenzie Break Paddleboard Records

By Marilyn Kali

Fred Fong and Kym McKenzie broke their own records in winning their divisions in the 6th annual Cline Mann 5K Paddleboard Race, August 11 at the Club.

Overall winner was Rick Williams who finished the course in 30 minutes, 30 seconds.

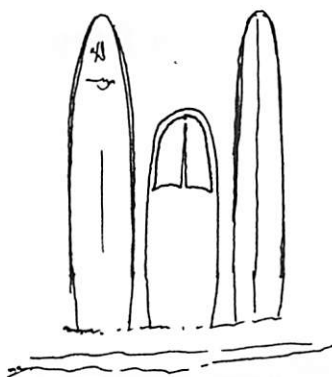

Fong finished fourth overall, taking one minute, 12 seconds off his old record, to win the masters raceboard division in 33 minutes, 29 seconds.

McKenzie knocked 35 seconds off her previous record to win the women's division in 36 minutes, 35 seconds.

This year a new division was held for lifeguard boards. Winning that division was Joe Golonka in :36:31.

It was a beautiful day for the race, with sunny skies and 3-foot surf.

Thanks to Robby Burns, Michele St. John, John Mounts, Vik Watumull, Ron Li, Dale Hope, Joe Teipel, Don Isaacs, Lee LeGrande, Deke Kilpatrick, Bill Bright, Cline Mann, Marjorie Moore, Bob Moore and Mark Jackola for their help on race day.
