

Moore Wins Surf Race, Again!

By Marilyn Kali

Lifeguard Chris Moore won the 9th annual Summer Surf Paddleboard Race for the fourth straight year, June 17 at the Club.

A south swell was present with waves of 3-4 feet breaking at Old Man's and in the OCC Channel.

Chris was able to catch waves after all three turns into shore, barely beating Heath Hemmings, who missed the first wave after the first turn and paddled hard to catch up. However, Chris was always one wave ahead of him on the remaining two laps.

It was a 1-2-3 finish for Outrigger women, with Kym McKenzie finishing first overall, followed by Colleen Kelley and Kisi Haine.

Fred Fong won the masters men's raceboard division, Sage Spalding won the boy's raceboard division and Kai Mowat was the first finisher in the kids, 14 and under division.

Women race 1 1/3 miles, while the men's course is three times through the surf or two miles.

Paddleboard Committee chairman Fred Fong thanked all those who helped including Cline Mann, Peg Danford, Joe Teipel, Nalani Blaisdell and Marilyn Kali, as well as the OCC management for the refreshments after the race. 🍷

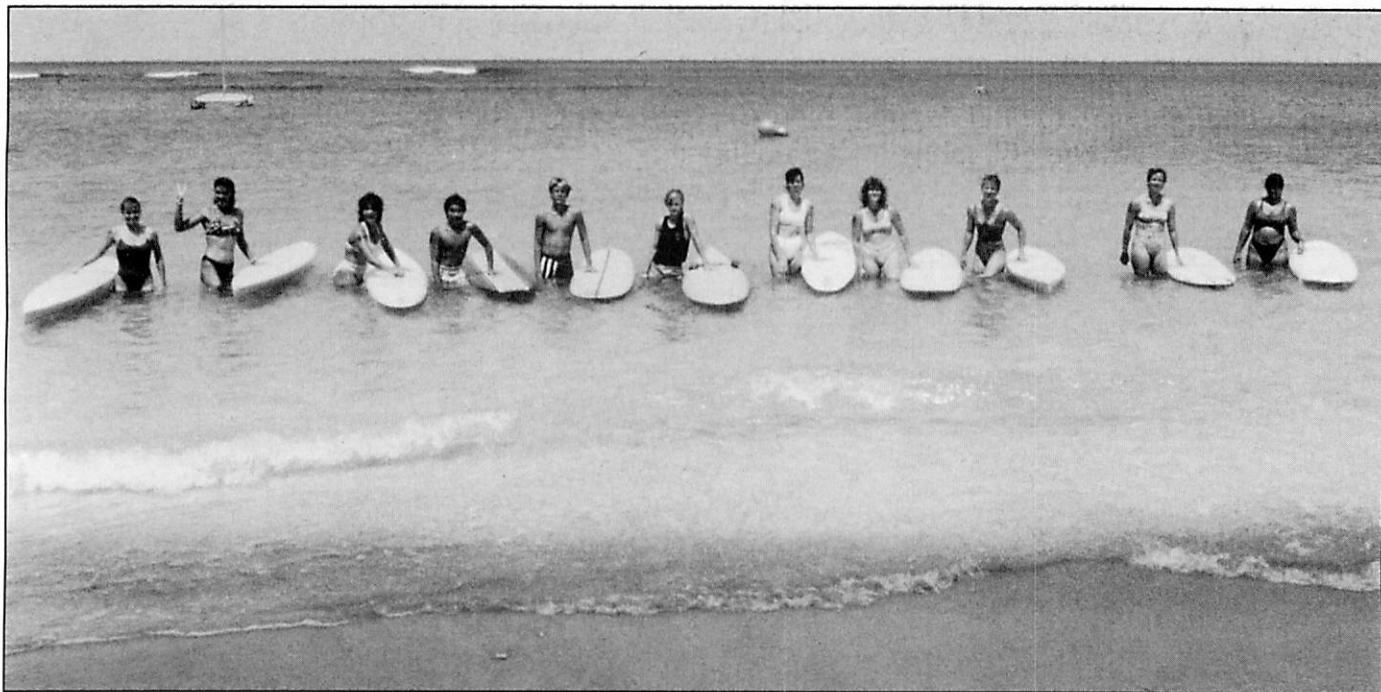

Chris Moore and Heath Hemmings congratulate each other after finishing 1-2.
