

Two OCC Teams Win at Haili

Outrigger's A and Masters teams won their divisions in the 34th annual Haili Men's Club Invitational Volleyball Tournament, March 30 in Hilo.

In the A Division, Outrigger beat Kaneohe, 15-8, 15-11, in the championship game. Stein Metzger was named most valuable player in the A division. Also named to the all-tournament team were Mike Lambert, Charles Mattson and Brian Costales.

Other members of the championship team were Chris Siegfried, Josh Helbing, Brant Chillingworth, Derek Wood and Kanoa Ostrem.

The A's were coached by Kimo Brown.

In the Masters Division, OCC defeated Bay Club of Oahu, 15-9, 15-3, to capture the title. Randy Shaw was named most valuable player in the masters division. Jon Stanley was selected to the all-tournament team.

Also playing on the championship team were Buster Chapman, Charlie Jenkins, Ralph Smith, Jon Andersen and Ilmar Tarikas.

Outrigger also sent its 16 year old boy's team to compete in the B Division. They were the youngest team in the tournament and finished seventh out of 40 teams.

Playing on the B team were Ryan Avery, Alika Williams, Ivan Gale, Brian Kilcoyne, Dan Brandt, Jesse Hunt, J. J. Riley, Kimo Greenwell and Richard Riecker.

Coaching the Boys 16's team was Kepa Cummings.

OCC didn't have enough women to make a team, but six club members played on the Crystal Light/FILA team.

They included Paula Jenkins, Debra Zabriskie, Marcie Nowack, Diana McKibbin, Jan Gordon and Tyler Tavares.

The gals lost in the finals of the AA Division to the UH Rainbows, 15-8, 13-15, 15-3. Marcie Nowack was named to the all-tournament team. ☺
