

OCC Dominates Haili Volleyball

5/88

Outrigger Canoe Club's men's volleyball teams won three of the four titles in the 30th annual Haili Men's Invitational Volleyball Tournament, April 2 in Hilo.

Outrigger won the AA, A and Masters Divisions in the men's competition and was third in the women's AA Division.

OCC had to come out of the losers bracket to win the AA title, by defeating Lokahi, 15-13, in sudden death after scoring a 15-11, 15-1 victory over Lokahi. Arne Lamberg was named the Most Valuable Player and Jim Kalaukoa and Marc Haine were named to the All Tournament team. Others on the team were Charlie Jenkins, Chris Crabb, Jon Andersen, R. D. Gray, Kimo Brown and John Zabriskie.

In the A Division, OCC's Masters team defeated Kaneohe, 15-6, 14-12 to capture the title. Jon Stanley was named the MVP and Randy Shaw and Tom Madison were named to the All Tournament team. Also on the team were Chris MacLaughlin, Bill Johnson, Dean Nowack, Doug Bechert and Rob Duran.

Outrigger's Golden Masters team won the Masters Division by defeating Keaukaha, 14-9, 15-7. Dennis Berg was named the MVP and Rich Riffero and Fred Hiapo were named to the All Tournament team. Other team members were Bill Baird, Bob Kashare, Tom Haine, Peter Balding, Linzy Hotz and Wayne Kekina.

Playing on the OCC women's AA team were Wendy Crabb, Diana Rigg, Diana McKibbin, CeeCee Sheehan, Debra Zabriskie, Tyler Dacey, Marcie Wurts and Mary Shoji. Zabriskie and Wurts were named to the All Tournament team. 🏐