Haili Tournament

The Outrigger Canoe Clubs' volleyball contingent made another grand showing this year at the Haili Tournament, held annually in Hilo over the Easter weekend.

The Outrigger Canoe Clubs' #1 team led by Charlie Jenkins and Randy Shaw lost in the finals to a fine U.H. squad coached by former OCC coach, Dave Shoji.

The Outrigger Canoe Clubs' #2 team finished 7th overall in a field of 30 plus teams.

The darlings of the tournament turned out to be the OCC Juniors who finished 6th overall. It was the award to the OCC Juniors team for most likely to achieve and sportsmanship that especially pleased coach Jim Iams. Tournament Chairman Ken Griffin said that the awards to the OCC Juniors were unanimous and that was certainly evident by the applause at the awards banquet.

The Outrigger Canoe Club Junior team members were B. Costales, B. Cross, R. D. Gray, R. Heitzman, E. Lamberg, P. Mattice, J. McDermott, D. Rigg and M. Rigg.
