

Masters Win Haili VB Tournament

By Stevie Li

The 39th annual Haili Volleyball Tournament was a successful trip for the five Outrigger teams participating. The Girls 16 team (coached by Kisi Haine) topped the list with a strong second place finish in the Women's B Division. The team was awarded the best sportsmanship award.

The Men's Masters team dominated their division with yet another first place finish. Randy Shaw was named MVP and teammate Bill Johnson made the All-Star team.

The OCC A Team (coached by Stevie Li) battled to a third place finish as Steve Corbelli and Scott Wong received All-Star honors. The team was balanced with the best Junior players including Scott Wong, Koa Ostrem, Clayton Stanley, Dominic Griffin and Keone Kowalski. Rounding out the team were Corbelli, David Stackhouse, Bill Pratt and Brandon Flores.

This unique blend of the premier Juniors and top A players was a successful combination and a special experience for everyone.

The Men's Open team finished second to team Polo, with Darryn Holt receiving the outstanding player award. He was joined by Tony McInerney on the All-Star team.

The Men's 35 team competed in the tough Open division and lost to eventual champion team Polo in tournament play. They will be training hard to prepare for the Nationals in Dallas, Texas in late May. The 35s have dominated this division over the years and are the expected favorites to bring home the gold.

Members of the team include Marc Haine, Jon Andersen, Scott Rigg, Alan Lau, Kimo Brown, Jon Stanley, Ralph Smith and Tim Walston.

Members of the A team were front, Bill Pratt, Steve Corbelli, Dominic Griffin, Koa Ostrem, Coach Stevie Li. Back row, David Stackhouse, Brandon Flores, Keone Kowalski, Clayton Stanley, Scott Wong.

Playing on the Masters team were Jim Heumann, Randy Shaw, Charlie Jenkins, Tom Madison, Dennis Berg, Bill Johnson, Ilmar Tarikas.
