

OCC Readmitted to AAU

The return of the Outrigger Canoe Club to prominence in the athletic scene has been noted by the readmission of the club to the amateur athletic union.

The success of the state champion volleyball team has spearheaded the drive for the return to days when the Outrigger was heralded as tops in every athletic field.

Interest has been promoted in the reformation of an Outrigger swimming team which not so very long ago was held high in International and National esteem.