

'Riggers Play on Junior National VB Team in India'

Erik Shoji, Brad Lawson and Tri Bourne played on the USA Junior Men's National Team in the World Championships last summer in Pune, India, where they took eighth place. By winning the Bronze medal in the NORCECA Tournament in El Salvador in the summer of 2008, the Junior men's national team qualified for the World's in 2009. Erik and Brad presently play volleyball for Stanford University and Tri plays for USC. Erik, Brad and Tri are all shown on the court in serve receive position. Pretty amazing to have three OCC boys make the team and then play on the court at the same time. Story and photo by Laurie Lawson.