

Daddy Would Play!

What a great Labor Day weekend! The 19th Annual Daddy Haine Volleyball Tournament made it back to its original home on Labor Day Weekend. The tournament is a late summer Outrigger tradition where players from all over the world come to celebrate the life of one of Outrigger's finest, Tom "Daddy" Haine. This year the players ranged from 14 year olds to almost 70 year olds of all abilities.

The day was as competitive as ever with very close matches played in "old style" volleyball using rules that Daddy played under. In the end no one could stop the team of Bogdan Olteanu, Max Clini, Pat Kaawaloa, and Lia Young. They won in an exciting double final beating the team of Josh Day, Justin Ching, Vern Podlewski and the father son duo of Bill and Brad Lawson. It was a fitting way to honor the life of an Outrigger legend. Daddy would play!

Marc and Marilyn Haine congratulate Lia Young, Bogdan Olteanu, Max Clini, and Pat Kaawaloa on winning the Daddy Haine.
