

Outrigger Volleyball Wins Gold!

The Outrigger Boys 17s volleyball team bested a field of 68 teams to win the National Championship at the USA Boy's Junior National Volleyball tournament in Columbus, Ohio. The team dominated the club division of the tournament with a 12-0 record and only lost one set during the tournament.

In winning the tournament, the team beat clubs from Northern California, Southern California, Ohio, Florida and Puerto Rico. In the Championship match, the Outrigger Boys beat Pulse Athletics of Southern California 25-23, 25-22 to win the Club's first indoor national championship in many years.

Jon Stanley Jr., son of Winged "O" member and Olympian Jon Stanley and brother of three-time Olympian Clay Stanley, was named the Most Valuable Player of the tournament. Shea Suzumoto, Matthew Saffery and Cole Hogland were named All Americans.

Other members of the team were Parker Van Dyke, Claudio Clini, Davis Lau, Connor Skorge, Kris Ma, Titan Mitchell and Ethan Wescoatt. The team was coached by Alan Lau, Curtis Watasaki and Wil Stanley.

The team thanks the Volleyball Committee, the Board of Directors and all Club members for their support this past season and looks forward to a great season in 2018.
