

OCC Junior Volleyball Tournament

By Kisi Haine

Winning the July 23 tournament were Kahala Companion, Carissa Kim, Shea Suzumoto and Malia Gacutan. With them are coaches Kisi Haine and Rick Humphreys who ran the event.

During the month of July, OCC Junior Volleyball players participated in two volleyball tournaments and one OCC sponsored clinic. The teams played some awesome volleyball games, as the peanut gallery cheered the serves, sets and hits of all the youngsters.

The July 12 Tournament featured round-robin game play and a clinic organized by Kevin Wong's "Spike and Serve" group. The kids loved playing against Josh Walker, Kanani Danielson and Heidi Illustre (current and former UH Volleyball Stars)!

For their efforts, each of the 50 junior members who participated received special Kraft Foods goodie bags, provided by Margo Worrall and were treated to a yummy spaghetti dinner at the Snack Shop, hosted by the OCC Volleyball Committee.

On July 23, OCC sponsored a junior three-person draw tournament. With eight teams participating, the competition was fierce and the rallies awesome! The winning team emerged after five hard fought games in the hot sun.

The winning team players were Kahala Companion, Shea Suzumoto, Malia Gacutan and Caryssa Kim. Congratulations to all of our wonderful players!

Special thanks to Margo Worrall who organized the free spaghetti dinner, provided the goodie bags and who did all the emailing! You're awesome Margo!
