Jon Andersen/Partners Win Summer VB

By Robby Ostrem

Jon Andersen and three different partners won the summer sand volleyball tournaments during August.

On August 14-15, Jon teamed with Marcie Nowack to win the Kane/Wahine Tournament at the Club, defeating the team of Randy Shaw and Kisi Haine. Third place went to Adam Lockwood and Malia Kamisugi and fourth to Kimo Brown and Gabriela Artigas. A total of 16 teams entered the tournament.

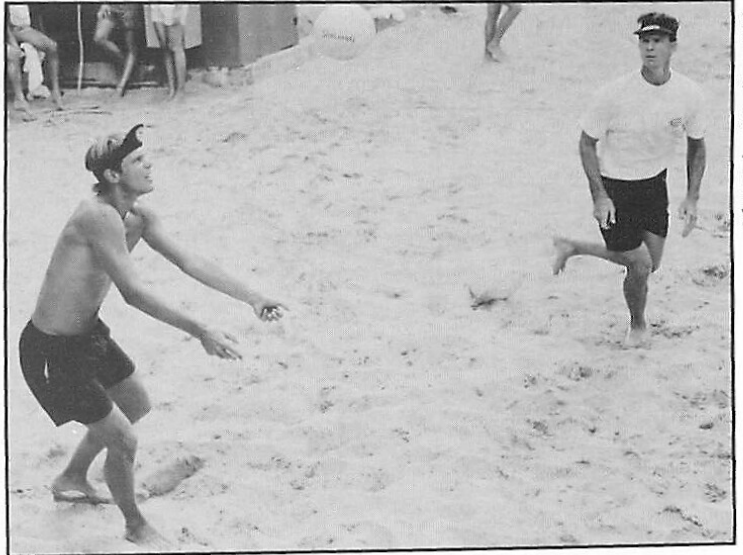

The following week, August 21-22, Jon teamed with John McDermott to capture the Duke Kahanamoku Championship at the Club. They defeated Aliko Williams and Ralph Smith, 15-11, in the finals.

Also placing were UCLA teammates Brian Wells and Stein Metzger, third; J. J. Riley and Daniel Chong, fourth; and Chris Crabb and Randy Shaw and Danny McNerny and Tony McNerny, tied for fifth.

Jon and partner Adam Lockwood defeated R. D. Gray and James Higginbotham, 15-8, to win the Emporio Armani Tournament, August 28-29 at Queen's Beach.

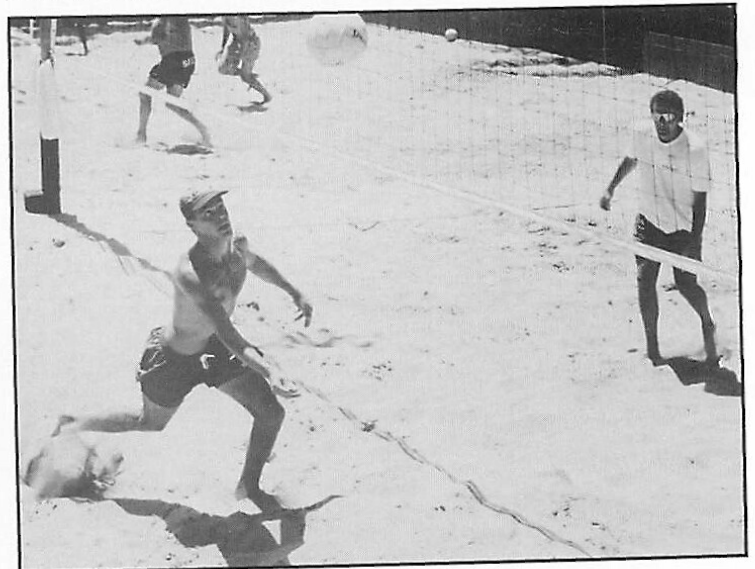

Kirk Christman and Tim Walston finished third, Tony and Danny McNerny, fourth; and tied for fifth were Matt Rigg and John McDermott and Kevin Wong and Brian Wells.

In the women's division of the Armani tourney, Marcie Nowack and Diana McKibbin came in second to Laurie Kemp and Pele Baker. ☺
