

OCC Summer Volleyball Action

By Robby Ostrem

The first OCC volleyball tourney was held on July 11. More than 20 teams participated in the two-man beach action. This is a double elimination format and the team of Jon Andersen and R. D. Gray were the team to beat in the finals.

The two teams vying for the chance to knock off Andersen and Gray were Kirk Christman and Tim Walston against Tony and Danny McNerny. Christman and Walston prevailed and moved on to play Andersen and Gray in the finals. Andersen and Gray between them have won many beach tournaments and were up to the challenge in defeating Kirk and Tim.
