

Volleyball

Outrigger sponsored three men's and one women's volleyball team during 1985, as well as a variety of summer sand volleyball tournaments. The highlight of the year was the national U.S. Volleyball Association Championship won by the Golden Masters team in New York in May.

The highlights:

Women

Women's volleyball returned to OCC in 1985 with a win at the Lanikai Open Tournament. Throughout the season, the women consistently finished in the top four, playing teams like the UH Wahines, Chaminade and the UH Vulcans. Although the team was relatively short, they were very competitive in all aspects of the game.

In the final tournament of the season, the Haili Invitational, the OCC women placed 4th. Diana McKibbin was named to the All-Tournament team. Her consistent setting and spiking guided the team throughout the season. She contributed not only her playing skills, but also her coaching skills. For this reason, she was named the Club's Outstanding Woman Volleyball Player for 1985.

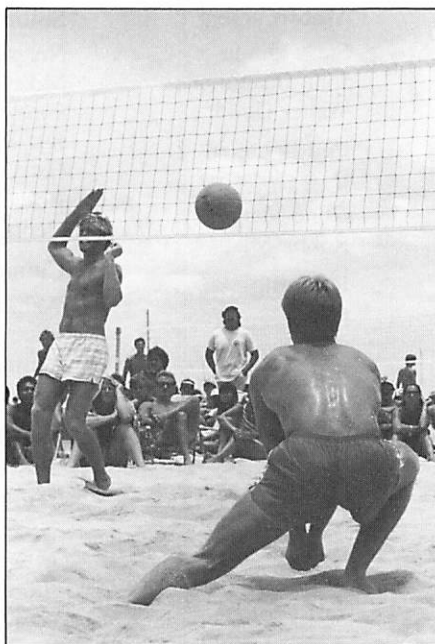

Other members of the team were Tracy Phillips, Sandra Stanley, Tyler Dacey, Paula Jenkins, Marcie Wurts, Pam Rigg and Kisi Haine.

Men's Open

The Open team won every USVBA tournament entered on Oahu. They placed second in the Haili Tournament and won the USVBA Regional to qualify for the nationals.

The Open Team included Marc Haine, Elgin Calles, Trevor Schirman, Hugh Foster Jr., Peter Balding Jr., Scott Rigg, Dan McInerny, Ken Morrow and R. D. Gray. Dean Nowak was the coach.

During the nationals in New York, Jon Andersen, Ralph Smith and Craig Buck who were competing with the U.S. National team, joined the Open team. The team placed 4th overall in the Open Division with honors of All-Rookie team to R. D. Gray. Marc Haine received Honorable Mention All-American honors.

Haine was named the Most Valuable Player for the Open team for the 1985 season.

Masters

The Masters team won the University of Hawaii Open by defeating the OCC Open team, placed third in the Haili Invitational and was second in the Hawaii Regionals for the USVBA. They were defeated in the finals of the USVBA Nationals in New York by Chuck's of San Diego.

All-American selections were Randy Shaw, Jon Stanley and Chris Crabb.

Crabb was the Most Valuable Player of the Tournament. Other members of the team were Jon Haneberg, Charles Jenkins, Tom Madison, Tom Selleck and Dave Shoji.

Jon Stanley was inducted into the USVBA Hall of Fame. His honors include being named All-American 13 times and the MVP in the USVBA Nationals three years in the Masters Division. Because of his outstanding play, Stanley was named the OCC Outstanding Volleyball Player of 1985.

Golden Masters

The Golden Masters won the USVBA National championship in New York for the second time in four years.

Making the 1985 All-America first team were Fred Hiapo and Rich Riffero. Other members of the team were Bill Baird, Dan Oredson, Tom Haine, Dave Hendrickson, Hugh Foster Sr., Peter Balding Sr. and Bob Kashare. Ron Sorrell was the coach.

Kaanapali Pro Volleyball Tournament

1st Place—Bill Berger & Randy Stoklos

2nd Place—Jon Andersen and Jay Anderson

4th Place—Chris Crabb and Cliff Kapololu

OCC Men's Open—June

1st Place—Mark and Scott Rigg

2nd Place—Jon Andersen and Jay Anderson

4th Place—Matt Rigg and Owen McKibbin

OCC Men's Open—July

1st Place—Marc Haine and Jon Andersen

2nd Place—Scott and Mark Rigg

3rd Place—Chris Crabb and Randy Shaw

Duke Kahanamoku State Sand Volleyball Championships

1st Place—Jon Andersen and Mark Rigg

2nd Place—Chris Crabb and Randy Shaw

4th Place—Hugh Foster Jr. and Peter Balding Jr.

Four Man Calcutta

1st Place—Marc Haine, Wayne Kekina, Chuck Monson, Brian Bagano