

Volleyball Season in Full Swing

All-Americans Charlie Jenkins and Jim Iams teamed up to win the Outrigger's Open Volleyball Doubles Tournament July 17-18. The tough field of competitors included 18 of the state's top doubles teams studded with many All-Americans and former All-American players. In second place were Jon Haneberg and Tom Davidson. The team of Chris Crabb and Robin Durand came in third.

One of the outstanding teams of the tournament was the "All-Star Handicap Cripple Team" of Tom Haine and Dan McFadden, both with injuries, who, nonetheless, played fine volleyball. Up and coming Junior member Peter Ehrman also played extremely well throughout the matches.

July 24 saw more top-flight action at the OCC sand courts with the playing of the Womens Club Championships. Miki McFadden and Lindy Vivas defeated Tracy Phillips and Kisi Haine to win the championship title. In third were Wendy Crabb and Mary Fern.

Mens Club Doubles Championships were played the following week-end with the unbeatable team of Charlie Jenkins and Jim Iams scoring the win. Randy Shaw and Tom Madison took a second place and third went to the team of Jon Haneberg and Tom Haine.
