

Jimmy Austin and Mary Smolenski Top OCC Finishers

By William Reichenstein

FAR LEFT: Simeon Ke Paloma, Jimmy Austin and Manny Kulukuluala were the top finishers in the OC1.

BELOW RIGHT: Karel Tresnak was second in his age group in the OC-1 and Mary Smolenski was the first woman finisher in the Surfski.

LEFT: Veterans Kala Judd and Geoff Graf finished fourth and seventh in the Surfski Division.

Mahalo nui loa to all who joined us for the Outrigger Canoe Club's 2nd Annual Hoe Wa`a Mau race on January 23. We had light trades providing some small surf to help the nearly 200 paddlers on the eight-mile course from Maunalua Bay to the Club.

The race is a stop on the Kanaka Ikaika racing schedule and paddlers earn points toward the season championship.

Local knowledge definitely proved to be a factor, as a strong outgoing tide and surf around Diamond Head made the course somewhat challenging.

OCC was well represented by Jimmy Austin, Simeon Ke-Paloma, Karel Tresnak Jr. and Tapa Worthington who all finished in the top five of the open one-man division. Mary Smolenski was the first woman over the line in very impressive fashion.

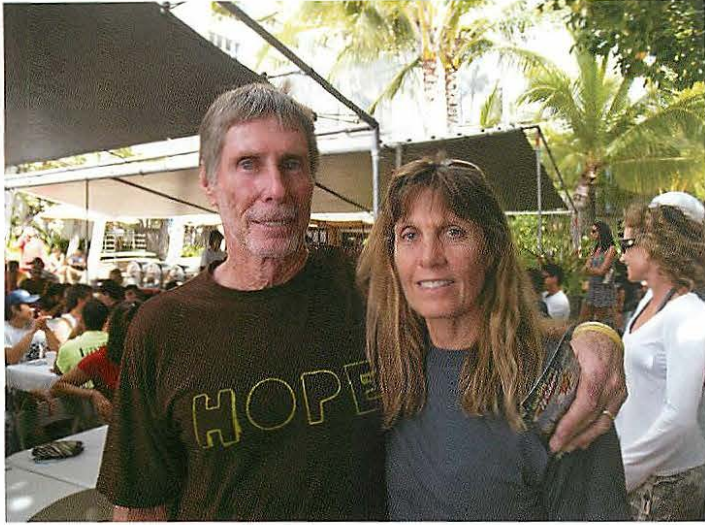

Edmund Joy was the winner of the surfski division, followed by OCC's Steve Kelley and Geoff Graf. 'Rigger Kevin Allen won the paddleboard division and Jared Vagas, the standup paddle division.

Doug Lock was the lucky winner of the random drawing for an OCC OC-1 storage locker for a year.

Mahalo to all the Outrigger Canoe Club staff for providing ono grinds to the 194 race participants and making our after party one of the best we've seen this season. The raffle was full of incredible prizes thanks to all the generous sponsors that included Broad Reach Hawaii, Makana Alii, Maui Jim, Primo Beer, Bud Light, Olu Kai, Kamanu Composites, and Wahoo's Fish Tacos.

The day was a great success and could not have been done without the help of the race committee and their never ending delegating skills. Thank you to all who came and enjoyed the day's great festivities. We look forward to seeing you all again at next year's race!

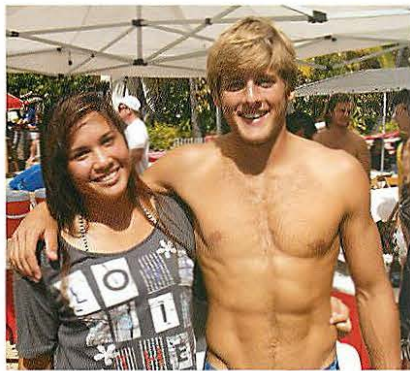

in Hoe Wa`a Race

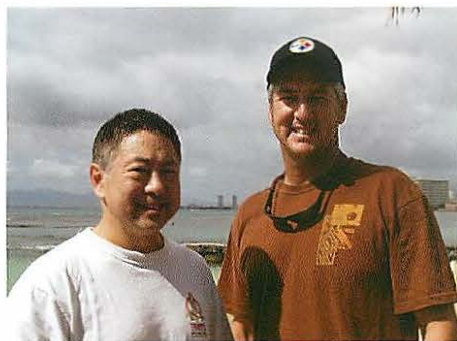

Ken Bailey and Paula Crabb were the first mixed open team to finish in the OC-2.

Kevin Allen iron manned it for eight miles to win the Paddleboard Division.

Rachel Kincaid and Logan Nowack were second in the Open Surfski 2 Division.

Chris Sunoo and Mark Eliashof competed in the OC-1.
