

Aloha Paddlers and Members

By Anthony Hunt

The OC-1 Canoe and Kayak Committee would like input from all paddlers and members participating or interested in any type of paddling.

As a committee we realize that there are so many things to do with our canoes and kayaks aside from competition. As such we want to hear your stories, travels, activities, and ideas. We feel the committee serves not only active paddlers competing for the Club, but recreational enthusiasts as well.

Understanding who is doing what is the first part of supporting and developing programs to assist members and grow participation. Together we can raise paddling awareness and Club Pride by sharing ideas and supporting different paddling activities.

As some of you may know the OC-1 Canoe and Kayak Committee helps OCC members competing in the Molokai Channel Races of OC-1 and Kayaks with monetary assistance. In an effort to continue to build Club pride we have asked members competing in the Kanaka Ikaika series and participating in the Molokai Races to wear free OCC race jerseys.

The committee is proud to report that this request was graciously and enthusiastically supported by many competing OCC paddlers, and that some of our members are consistently finishing on top of the leader board. Seeing the racers having fun, competing and representing the Outrigger is what it is all about!

We would like to thank and congratulate all the members currently competing in the One-Man races, and understand how important participation in these events are to a successful highly competitive Regatta and Long Distance season for the Club. We wish all our crews, coaches, and everyone working behind the scenes an awesome season, and thank each of you for your dedication to each other and our Club.

If you have stories, ideas or input, please put them in writing and leave them at the Front Desk with attention to Billy Philpotts or Anthony Hunt so that your committee can continue to support you and the Club!

Your input is greatly appreciated! IE O PAI!
