ERNEST W. STENBERG, FORECAST EDITOR, RESIGNS

It is fitting that on the occasion of the 50th Anniversary of the Outrigger Canoe Club, your present editor of the Forecast resigns. He suggested to the Board of Directors in September 1941 that the Club should have an organ to apprise members of its activities. As usual when one comes up with a suggestion he is usually stuck with the job—and so 17 years ago he assumed the task of editor, carrying on ever since.

During these 17 years he has served on at least one committee each year, as well as editor, at times serving on three Committees and also serving as Director three terms. He intends an extended trip to the mainland in June and therefore resigned as editor.

Starting out as a penny postal card and named the Forecast by Kenneth Carney, a member of the publicity committee, it grew in size and importance to its present format in May 1943. It has been the endeavor of the editor to apprise membership of the Club activities, rules, regulations, new members and other pertinent information.

Not least of the policy has been an attempt to build up Club spirit, athletics, foster good fellowship and create good public relations and goodwill for the membership. We believe that all of these things have been accomplished and now he retires and turns over the task to other capable hands.

To the many members, the Club personnel and other correspondents who have furnished information, articles and pictures goes his deepest aloha. To the new editor and the Forecast Committee appointed to carry on he anticipates a bigger and a better Forecast.

Forecast Committee members are: Pat Wyman, Mrs. Ernest Thomas, Norman Godbold, III, Harvey Wilson, Traylor Mercer, Ed Greaney, chairman.

GIFT TO MANN

In appreciation of the fine work done on behalf of the OCC by Past Director James Mann who resigned as Director last month, the Directors passed a resolution of appreciation, accompanied with an appropriation to present him with an elegant cigarette lighter, suitably inscribed.

SURFERS WARNING FLAG SYSTEM

A flag system was initiated to warn canoe operators and surfboard riders of dangerous beach waters from Ala Moana Park to the Elks Club.

Flags will be hoisted only when surfing conditions are unsafe, explained Howard Donnelly.

Donnelly, Moana-SurfRider Hotel manager, is chairman of the Waikiki Beach and Watersports Safety Committee which originated the flag system.

The first flag was hoisted from the Outrigger Canoe Club's flagstaff, because of a rough surf.

The two flags being used are: a blue-red one called "kaikoo" (meaning rough surf) and a red-white one called "kaikuehu" (windy surf).

All private and commercial canoes will be beached when the kaikoo flag is up, Donnelly said, and no surfboards or mats will be rented.

Canoes may operate when the kaikuehu flag is hoisted, but surfboard and mat rentals will stop.

A sub-committee comprised of beach personnel will operate the flag system.

Our Sympathy

To the family and friends of the late William Mendel Borthwick is extended the deepest sympathy of his many friends at the Outrigger Canoe Club. He passed on April 3 at the age of 60 years. Mr. Borthwick was prominent in business, fraternal, lodge, club and civic circles. His death is a loss to the community in which he achieved high standing and made a myriad of friends.

EDWIN N. MCCLELLAN

FIFTY GOLDEN OCC YEARS

by EDWIN NORTH MCCLELLAN

Time is valuable in terms of what you do with it. Measured by that standard the first half-century of the Outrigger Canoe Club is worth its weight in the most precious element. OCC members have ennobled the Polynesian Ancestors of the Club. We begin the Second Half-Century as a unique Hawaiian Club! I give you below a few—too few, indeed—reminders of gone days. We can learn only from past OCC years!

Taking up where the Polynesian-Hawaiian surfers left off the Hawaiian Haoles enhanced their aquatic heritage. Outriggery and surfboarding never declined at Waikiki. The slogan was, and is, "Surfing will always be at Waikiki!" During the years prior to the OCC's birth there were many who kept the Sport of Kings alive at Waikiki. A few of the many were Princess Kaiulani, Arthur M. Brown, Alatau Leonard, Charles Atkinson, Sanford Ballard Dole, James F. Morgan, Dr. Alford C. Wall, Harold Hustace, Harry Steiner, James McCandless, Kenneth Brown, Duke Paoa Kahana-moku, Vince Genoves, Dad Center, F. L. Waldron, Lane Webster, Lucius Eugene Pinkham, H. P. Wood, Ernest A. Mott-Smith, H. L. S. Herbert, Henry P. O'Sullivan, Prince Kuhio (Cupid), Richard H. Trent, Kenny Winters, Charles R. Frazier, J. P. Cooke, Henry R. Macfarlane, J. R. Galt, George P. Macfarlane, Walter Francis Dillingham and hundreds of other Hawaiians and haole kamaainas. There was no "Hawaiian Outrigger Canoe Club" in Sept.-Oct. 22, 1903 (Forecast November, 1957, 23).

TWO MALIHINIS—HOLMES AND FORD

Burton Holmes arrived at Honolulu aboard the Siberia on March 3, 1908; Alexander Hume Ford on the Moana, next day. R. K. Bodine and Ella Wheeler Wilcox had arrived shortly before.

CLUBHOUSE FOR SURFERS

Reporting Waikiki events of March thirteenth of 1908, the Evening Bulletin announced that "Honolulu is to have a Clubhouse at Waikiki for surfboarders and those interested in canoe-surfing." An informal Surfboard and Outrigger Carnival was held that afternoon in front of the Moana in honor of Burton Holmes.

Proprietor William Lishman and Manager Archibald J. Stout of the Seaside had arranged for the site of the Club at the request of A. H. Ford; "Jack Atkinson has promised to promote and organize the Club," reported the Bulletin. "Burton Holmes and R. K. Bonine are registered as the first and most enthusiastic non-resident members."

HOLMES AND FORD WALK BEACH

On March 13, 1908, Burton Holmes and A. H. Ford walked the Beach at Waikiki "studying and photographing the Lanais . . . designs for Clubhouse." The gifted Ella Wheeler Wilcox had

"put the bee in the Holmes-Ford bonnets and it is buzzing there to beat the biograph."

BURTON HOLMES SUGGESTS

"Burton Holmes visited the Seaside and suggested the formation of the Outrigger Club," reported a later Advertiser.

"The only marvel to me," Holmes said to a Bulletin reporter on the ancestral date of March thirteenth, "is that it never has been done before." He declared that the building of a Lanai for outriggers and boards was a "splendid idea." Burton Holmes sailed away on the Siberia three days later, wearing the garb of one of many Founding Fathers.

HISTORIC LETTER OF APRIL 7, 1908

An old circular letter dated April 7, 1908 in the OCC Archives asked local organizations to put before their members "the project of an Outrigger Canoe and Surfboard Club of Waikiki." The letter explained that interested persons should contact Charles R. Frazier.

FIRST MEETING OF OUTRIGGER CLUB

"The first meeting of the Outrigger Club was called to order," on April 24, 1908, "by Acting-Governor Ernest A. Mott-Smith at the rooms of the Promotion Committee [Visitors Bureau]," reported the Hawaiian Star. Without the initiative of this Promotion Committee there probably would not have been an OCC created at this time.

OCC ORGANIZED FORMALLY, MAY 1, 1908

"The Outrigger Canoe Club was formally organized," on May 1, 1908, "at the Promotion Committee rooms and elected the following officers for the coming year," reported the Advertiser: Alexander Hume Ford, President; H. L. S. Herbert, vice-president; Henry P. O'Sullivan, secretary; Richard H. Trent, treasurer; Kenny Winters, captain; Charles Russell Frazier, auditor; J. P. Cooke, Harry MacFarlane (Jr.), J. R. Galt, trustees.

First OCC Clubhouse.

LEASES SIGNED MAY 19, 1908

Leases were signed on May 19, 1908. It was due to the kindness of William Lishman and Archibald J. Stout of the Seaside that the site was acquired. J. H. Hertsche, of the Moana, gave his cooperative aid to the new OCC.

The OCC started with a membership of two hundred. The annual dues was five dollars. Allan Herbert became the first life-member on May 20, 1908.

MASCOT; FIRST CANOE

First mascot was Marie Brooke, adopted by the OCC in June. Master Arthur Gilman had the honor of placing the first OCC outrigger canoe in commission. It was owned by Dr. Humphris.

FEMININE SURFBOARDERS

Ruth Soper, under the tutelage of Harold Hustace, learned to "ride the board like a professional," reported the Advertiser, June 10, 1908. "Little Margaret Center, the charming fancy dancer, is another dainty youngster who comes to the Beach frequently to take surfing lessons from the Club members."

OCC GROUNDS READY IN LATE JUNE

The OCC, on May 22, 1908, had purchased two grass houses at the Old Zoo. They arrived at site on May 27th. On June 29th the Advertiser announced that the Club Grounds at Waikiki were ready for use.

OCC ENTERTAINS FLEET

A fleet of outriggers from OCC and Kamehameha Aquatic Club went out on July 16, 1908, to escort the U. S. Atlantic Fleet battleships to anchorage or dock. The Club, in conjunction with the Fleet Committee, entertained the personnel of the Fleet with an "open house," and an elaborate Fleet Regatta at Waikiki.

Probably the first outrigger canoe race of the OCC was in this Regatta when the Malolo, captained by Harold Hustace, lost to the Hawaiian-crewed Lei Ilima. However, the OCC in the same Malolo (Atherton Gilman, Lane Webster, Kenneth Brown, Zen Genoves) won the four-paddle race. There were many other events.

There were about twenty entries in the Big Surfboard Contest. Sam Wight and Kenneth Brown riding the new-type long boards, defeated Harold Hustace (1906, 1907 champion), Arthur Gilman, Atherton Gilman, Duke Paoa Kahanamoku, Dad Center, Arthur Myhre, Lane Webster, Harry Steiner, T. J. Carter, William Dole, Herman Mahl, Columbus Sims, Geoffrey Podmore, Jimmy Kaolani, Manoha and Major Keaweamahi, all of whom rode short boards.

OCC AND REGATTA DAY

OCC, from 1908 to 1949, supported Regatta Day. On Regatta Day, September 20, 1908, the Aa won the Big Canoe Race followed-in by the Hanakeoki representing the OCC. On Regatta Day of 1909, September 18th, the Aa, crewed by OCC-paddlers (Kenneth Brown, Harry Steiner, Willy "Knut" Cottrell, Edmond Melanphy, Dad Center, Zen Genoves), defeated Dr. Alford C. Wall's Kaimookalani. On September 17, 1910 (Regatta Day), a Kona crew in the Aa defeated the OCC haole crew in the Hanakeoke. And so down the years to 1949, when the Legislature killed Regatta Day.

BREAKWATER, CAUSEWAY, PAVILION

Late in 1908, a breakwater, a new causeway and a Club Lanai or Pavilion, were constructed. The forty-by-forty-foot dance-floor of the Pavilion was completed by December 5, 1908 when the OCC celebrated with a Surfing Regatta, Chowder and Ball.

SURFING UNDER SEARCHLIGHTS

December 5th was a busy brilliant day. In the afternoon there were outrigger and surfboard races and the "game of panapua or throwing arrows from an onrushing surfboard at a floating bladder." The girls had outrigger races in the Lagoon. Over the sea at night there roved ghostlike, weird, illuminated by searchlights surfboards and canoes. In the evening there was a fish-chowder and dance.

ACTING-PRESIDENT ALLAN HERBERT

President A. H. Ford departed from Hawaii December 8, 1908 and remained away for over a year. His name did not appear in the Honolulu Directory until about 1911. Vice-President Allan Herbert became Acting-President. Mrs. F. M. Swanzy became the new Vice-President. Mrs. Swanzy was made eligible for that office by the OCC opening Club membership to ladies on November 20, 1908. On the afternoon of March 27, 1909, the members of the OCC Women's Auxiliary celebrated the opening of their new home.

FRANK G. CLARK TOURISTS, 1910

Clark Tourists on Cleveland were entertained by OCC in January and February, 1910. Pigs and taro cooked in imus; taro pounded to poi; rides on surfboards and outriggers by visitors; a surfing regatta; and donation by Mr. Clark of four We're proud of John Gilbert Marshall Punahou senior, who just won a $6000.00 study grant awarded by the Statler Corporation to study for a degree in hotel management.

Mr. Tancerd, member of the Tattersall Club, Sydney, had just enough time to enjoy lunch at the Club during the stop of the SS Himalaya here for a day en route for Vancouver. He expressed his thanks and enjoyment.

Mr. and Mrs. James B. Wilson left on April 20 for a combined pleasure and business trip. Mrs. Wilson will leave for New York and Connecticut while Jim stays in SF, but both will meet again in Washington, D.C. They will visit the South including Florida, then to Puerto Rico and Jamaica, returning in June.

Congratulations to the Earl Thacker who celebrated their 30th wedding anniversary on March 31 at a family dinner party.

The Lawson Rileys are back home after a two-month trip, taking them to Chicago, the Northwest, New York, Southern USA and the Pacific Coast.

On Wednesday, April 12, Mrs. Wand Welo Pickering became Mrs. Frederic Spradling in Santa Barbara, California. The newlyweds will reside in Covina, California.

Mr. and Mrs. Gerald W. Fisher have returned from a skiing trip which included Sun Valley and Sugarbowl in Northern California.

"We came home to keep warm and dry." Those were the words of Mr. and Mrs. Jay J. Jepson who returned March 30 after a month's stay in Tucson, Arizona, where they went to keep warm. They say "we sure appreciate Hawaii's wonderful weather."

Sir Harry Clayton, member of Terminal City Club of Vancouver and the OCC there he bakes each winter, has another distinction. On April 9, while playing a two handed game of cribbage at the Waikiki Terrace he held the perfect "29" hand. He needed and cut the 5 of diamonds. Harry claims the Crib championship of Horseneck, Klondike and Gooseberry Creek. Incidentally, the Claytons will leave for home about May 10.

The same H. Clayton shot par at Oahu on April 19—the best game—usually the middle 80's he has ever shot. (Note: we were not present.)

April 8 saw the return of Mrs. Harold Roes from five-week trip to California. She and Lloyd Stone toured, giving a program of Hawaiian music, poetry and dances. She also visited her sister in Oklahoma.

On April 19, Mr. and Mrs. Wallace McBain left for a world tour. Itinerary includes Fiji, New Zealand, Australia, Rome, Spain, New York, California and home in August.

Homer Orvis entertained guests at dinner, April 10, honoring Dr. and Mrs. Charles C. Stevenson of Piedmont, California. He has also had his nephew Schuyler and his wife as guests, who have now returned to their home in Virginia.

Mrs. G. J. Watumull was off for Tucson, Arizona, to meet her friend Margaret Sanger and later a visit to New Orleans, Miami and New York City; returning about May 1.

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Stott of Melbourne, Australia and who hosted Bob and Barbara Crockett during the Olympics, enjoyed the Crocketts' hospitality during a short visit to Honolulu in mid-April.

Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Henshaw, with Mrs. Lindsley Austin, left April 12 for a trip to the Orient aboard the President Wilson. They will visit Japan, Hong Kong, Bangkok, Singapore and return about June 1. Linn Austin will join the party later when business permits.

On April 8 Kalei Kenney invited about 75 guests to an evening of informal dancing. Refreshments were punch and canapes and the young set enjoyed a wonderful evening.

Miss Sarah Jane Hess of Pittsford, New York, will become the bride of George Manning Richards of Honolulu, son of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Richards. Wedding will take place on June 1 in Rochester, New York.

Congratulations, Warde Hiberly, on your retirement from the Customs Service April 30. We regret hearing your decision to leave Honolulu for a West Coast home as the Club and community will lose a valued member. We do, however, hope that fishin' and everything you wish for will be of the best. Aloha!

After a two months' trip to Europe which included Portugal, Spain, France, Belgium, Holland, England, and back over the Polar route, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Barrett have returned home—with a "Hawaii is best." Mr. Barrett was elected president of Canada Dry Bottling Co. (Hawaii), succeeding the late Carl Haerle. Congratulations and all success.

Henry Kimelman (mentioned in "On The Avenue" column) is president of the lovely Virgin Isles Hotel at St. Thomas of which our manager Ted Magill was formerly manager. Hank is still raving about the canoe rides he had with Steamboat and says that while St. Thomas has much that Hawaii has—it has nothing like that.

We noted by two handsome pics in the Star-Bulletin that our members, Frank R. Sommerfeld and Arthur Emerson, are cousins. You'd never suspect it from their looks—but they are sorta calabash relatives as they are descendants from our early missionary family arrivals.

On April 12, Mr. and Mrs. Leslie A. Hicks left for a two months' trip which will take them to Pebble Beach, the east coast, Vancouver, B. C.; returning in late May. Mr. Hicks is combing business with pleasure on the trip.

Dr. and Mrs. Richard D. Kepner announced the engagement of their daughter, Barbara Hedwig, to Larry Everett Cooke, the son of Mr. and Mrs. E. Everett Cooke of Springfield, Oregon.

George "Keoki" Brangier is off on his annual trip to Tahiti—to get away from it all—or to get more of the same. George owns a small coconut plantation which gives him an excuse to visit Tahiti—and hate women—until his return in August.

Fred "Bill" Kane, former manager of the OCC, is a frequent visitor at the Club on his days off. He is doing a wonderful job as manager of the Kaneohe Marine Base Officers Club where he also has quarters.

Mrs. Lorrin P. Thurston left April 21 for a trip to Japan and Hong Kong on a business trip of six weeks. Lorrin is presently on the mainland attending various newspapers-publishers meeting.

It was a beautiful wedding on March 29 at Central Union Church when Nancy Lambert became Mrs. Francis Crawford, Jr. A large reception was held following the ceremony at the Oahu Country Club. The young newlyweds will be at home in Washington, D. C., where Lt. Crawford, USN, has been assigned.

Who gets in more scrapes than Irma??? Irma, of course. Arriving back by plane from Kauai recently with a flowing skirt, she caught it in the descending gang plank. All passengers debarking were held up while the entire plane crew finally released her—and the impatient passengers. (Wear slacks next trip, Irma.)

The following was carved on an old piece of marble and hangs in one of the men's rooms at the New York Athletic Club:

The meanest man in the United States occasionally visits this toilet room. He always carries away, as a souvenir, either a coat hook, door lock, or paper holder, and often several of each. He would take the marble slabs if they were not made fast. We guarantee this man a warm reception if we get hold of him.

VB SPOTLITE

NEW CHAIRMAN

The new chairman of the Volleyball Committee appointed by President R. C. Smith is Mark Auerbach who has served faithfully for several seasons on the Committee. He follows Ronnie Sorrell who has done such an excellent job as chairman. Ronnie has been appointed Club Captain but will still maintain his interest and activity in VB.

OCC SWEEPS HAWAIIAN VB LEAGUE

The OCC won 13 games, sweeping the League and winning the gold medals for first place. The team's toughest game were played against Central YMCA and were claimed by many to be as good as any played in the National's. The set went the full three games, Central Y winning the first 16-14 and OCC making a spectacular comeback to win the next two: 15-8 and 15-12.

HEILBRONS WIN KANE-WAHINE TOURNAMENT

Lynne and Bill Heilbron went through the tournament undefeated to win the Kane-Wahine Championship. Melva Snider and Ron Sorrell were second place winners, unfortunately forfeiting playing the championship game due to Ron having cramps in his left thigh. A tough schedule forced Ron and Melva to play most of the day before meeting the Heilbrons, resulting in the bad break for Ronnie.

Melva Snider, who is the mother of two children, played stellar games during the tournament both in offense and defense and deserved some sort of a special award for her performance.

JR.-SR. TOURNAMENT

At this writing the tournament to be played on April 26-27 designed to familiarize Junior members with AAU rules had not been played. It is also designed to give juniors stiffer competition and thus prepare them for future competition. This series was instituted by Sorrell last year and should be a regular tournament annually.

4-MAN TOURNAMENT

During May, each Wednesday evening a tournament will be held consisting of three men and one woman to each team. The games will be played under modified AAU rules. These games always draw a big rooters section, so come have dinner at the Club and root for your favorites.

WATCH BULLETIN BOARD IN LOBBY

CANOE NOTES

Coming canoe racing regattas are planned as follows:

- Maritime Day, May 24.
- Kamehameha Day, June 15.
- Walter J. Macfarlane Memorial, July 4.
- Oahu Championship, July 20.
- Territorial Championship, August 2.

Coach George Downing is preparing his strategy and calling for volunteers now!

Condolences

On April 6, Honolulu, his family and his friends suffered a grievous loss in the death of Dr. Louis Alfred Rodrigues Gaspar who passed on in San Francisco at the age of 54. An able physician and surgeon, businessman and active in civic duties he had many friends. To them and his family our heartfelt condolences.

ALONG THE AVENUE

On Wednesday, April 23, our good friend the SS Lurline made her 263rd call at Honolulu, completing a full ten years of service. Planned as of Dec. 22, she will leave S.F. for a 12-day trip to Mexico, followed by a 73-day trip through the South Seas and Asiatic ports leaving S.F. in January '59.

The Pacific Club which has had building troubles too has given the green light to spend about a half million on new buildings and furnishings at the present site.

It looks as though our neighbor, the Elks Club, has about jelled plans of razing the old Castle home and erecting a modern Clubhouse in its place. Upper Kalakaua Avenue will then house two modern clubs as neighbors.

Spence Weaver's Queen's Surf seems in jeopardy. The C&C of Honolulu has made a deposit on the land but the matter is one of contention as to value and damages which may be sustained by Spencecliff.

On May 1, amid proper Hawaiian ceremonies the Matson's Meeting House, adjacent to the Princess Kaiulani Hotel, was formally opened. OCC member Val Ossipoff was architect and did an excellent job which adds much to tourist facilities in Waikiki.

Noted that though there is a recession in mainland USA that the number of visitors for the first quarter is slightly lower than that of the same period in 1957, but that the visitors average a longer stay.

Bill Cogswell, executive secretary of Hawaii Visitors Bureau, has been elected president of the Honolulu Skat Club, an International Travel Fraternity.

The City Attorney's office has ruled that the proposal to assess property owners for part of the costs of re-aligning Kalakaua Avenue is strictly legal. This would affect property owners as far away as the Ala Wai.

Henry L. Kimelman, president of the Virgin Islands Hotel, St. Thomas Island, a recent visitor attending the Young Presidents Organization, likens Hawaii to the Virgin Islands—which he calls the "Hawaii of the Atlantic."

MOUNTAIN BALL SEASON

The 1958 Mountain Ball season began on April 11 with a victory by OCC over Park & Yee with a score of 15-10, followed on April 18 with OCC again winning from Austin & Towill 10-1. It appears that the OCC team is again in the fine form of 1957 when they won the League pennant.

All games are played on Friday with exception of May 13 which is on Tuesday.

June 6, 13 and 20 will be a Round Robin Series consisting of the top four teams for the 1958 Surveyors League Championship. Standings will be determined by the total number of games won and lost during the regular season and Round Robin Series.

For OCC rooters benefit, below is the schedule of games and where they play

Plans have not been finished at this time as several problems have presented themselves but it is believed that preliminary plans will soon be shown to our membership

OUTRIGGER CANOE CLUB

PROGRESS

Years passed and the depression of the '30's hit the club many low blows. Debts mounted, many members could not afford the modest dues and Club directors with true Hawaiian spirit hesitated to take drastic action against those in arrears. Taxes remained unpaid, buildings deteriorated, aided by termites, salt spray and lack of repairs. It was a gloomy outlook but as in most great emergencies men of wisdom, vision and courage arise to meet the challenge. Such men were Walter James Macfarlane, descendant of Hawaiian Royalty, Leslie Asa Hicks, president of the Hawaiian Electric Company, Thomas Singlehurst, vice president of the Bishop Trust Company, all officers of the club, with the Board of Directors determined to erect Club buildings and facilities which would be the pride of its members and Hawaii. Facing almost insurmountable obstacles, but with the assistance of an indomitable small group of members, finances were secured, plans made, and the present Outrigger Canoe Club was formally opened on June 11, 1941, at a gay party. Though the debt was heavy, the club was an immediate success and in 1944 all bond holders and debts incurred were paid off.

WAR YEARS

During the war years the club did its share in entertaining members of the Armed Forces. It was the social and sports center of Waikiki although Waikiki Beach was wrapped around with barbed wire; a precaution against an invasion from the Japanese Empire. In 1949 a new cocktail lounge and extensive improvement were made in dining room and other buildings.

NEW HOME

Twenty-five years seems a long time—the life of the lease on the beach property, occupied by the Club. In 1955 the Club began negotiations for an extension on the lease with the trustees of the Queen Emma Estate, but were unsuccessful. The property was leased to mainland capitalists and further negotiations with these interests resulted in terms apparently impossible to meet by the Club. During this period steps were taken to secure another site. Several were offered, but for various reasons all were abandoned as inadequate excepting a large area available from the Elks Club. Negotiations were started and finalized and the Club is possessor of a 99 year lease on the Ewa side of the Elks Club. Plans are now being drawn for a club house and modern facilities and it is estimated that the new club quarters will be erected at a cost of about $600,000.00. The Outrigger Canoe Club will then offer the finest in club operations, dining rooms, cocktail lounge, library, game rooms, swimming pool, volleyball, parking and many other services, some of which are lacking at the present location, due to lack of space.

THE FUTURE

The Outrigger Canoe Club will likely celebrate its 100th and its 150th birthday about a mile up the beach, still part of the Waikiki scene—but many oldtimers will speak of the "good old days of 1958."

FIFTY GOLDEN YEARS

fine silver cups to be contested by OCCers annually.

OCC IN FLORAL PARADE, 1910

The OCC constructed a grasshouse for the Trent Trust Company's float in the Floral Parade on Washington's Birthday, 1910. Next day, the grasshouse was taken to the OCC where it served as a Girls' Boat House.

S. B. DOLE, SECOND PRESIDENT

On February 15, 1910, the OCC elected officers: Sanford Ballard Dole, president; A. H. Ford, vice-president; Philip L. Weaver, second vice-president; Guy H. Tuttle, secretary; F. T. P. Waterhouse, treasurer; Ralph Lyon, auditor; Kenneth Brown, captain; J. P. Cooke, J. H. Galt, directors and trustees.

OCC LED IN CREATING HAWAIIAN AAU

The Hawaiian Amateur Athletic Union was organized in 1910-1911 and the OCC led in that project. OCCer Erle H. Hand made the first suggestion. Guy H. Tuttle was the Hawaiian AAU's first president. In all, the OCC contributed the help of Erle H. Hand, Lorrin Andrews, Guy H. Tuttle, H. B. Campbell, Irwin Spalding, A. H. Ford, S. B. Dole, Philip L. Weaver. AAU rules became effective in June, 1911. The first AAU Swim Meet was on August 12, 1911.

PRESIDENT P. L. WEAVER, 1911

Early in 1911, the OCC elected: Philip L. Weaver, president; Irwin Spalding, vice-president; Guy H. Tuttle, secretary; A. G. Smith, treasurer; Edmund Melanphy, captain (later, Watson Ballentyne); Theodore Cooper, B. Rietow, A. M. Nowell, directors.

DUKE BREAKS WORLD RECORDS, 1911

On August 12, 1911, Duke Paoa Kahanamoku, not yet an OCC member, broke world swim records in Honolulu Harbor, in an AAU Meet. Guy H. Tuttle of OCC was starter.

OCC AT OLYMPICS

Duke Paoa Kahanamoku won 100-meter freestyle at Stockholm, 1912; Dad Center was manager and coach at Antwerp in 1920 with Duke winning hundred-meter freestyle and Bill Harris, Helen Moses on team; at Paris in 1924, Duke finished second to Johnny Weissmuller in hundred-meter freestyle and Sam Kahanamoku third in same race, while Mariechen Wehseleau was member of victorious 400-meter relay team and second in hundred-meter freestyle; at Amsterdam in 1928, Clarence "Buster" Crabbe finished third in both 400 and 1500 meter freestyle; at Los Angeles in 1932 Buster Crabbe won America's only swim-race (400-meter freestyle) and was fifth in 1500-meter freestyle; in 1952 at Helsinki Dick Cleveland was member of Willson, Walter James Macfarlane, Harold Augustus Mountain, Wilford D. Godbold, Samuel M. Fuller, Herbert M. Taylor, H. Vincent Danford, Fred Steere, Ronald Q. Smith.

GOVERNOR L. E. PINKHAM, 1913

OCC Charter Member Lucius Eugene Pinkham was appointed Governor of Hawaii by President Woodrow Wilson and U. S. Senate confirmed on November 29, 1913.

FIRST WORLD WAR—CASTLE SWIM

The OCC is a veteran of the First World War. The Thanksgiving Period of 1917 was commemorated by the OCC with surfing-events, swims, and an Outrigger Fishing-Party off Leahi to secure fish for the Monster Chowder and Dance that concluded an Aquatic Festival on December 1, 1917. With the waves rolling-in high and the sun high in the sky on Thanksgiving afternoon, November 29, 1917, the OCC "pulled-off its surf-board riding events with unusual success," reported the Star-Bulletin. Weather interfered and it was not until December 1st that Castle-to-OCC Long-Distance Swim was staged. Harold "Stubby" Kruger won the first Castle Swim. Josephine Hopkins won the Ladies' Race.

The Thanksgiving Swims were dead from 1918 to 1921, inclusive. Renewed in 1922. Relinquished again in 1937. Came to life for one year, 1945. Revived in November 1953; and 1957 was the last OCC Long-Distance Swims. When will these traditional OCC swims be renewed?

OCC HONORS ARMISTICE DAY, 1918

OCC members, with other Americans, celebrated Armistice Day that ended First World War, on November 11, 1918.

PRINCE OF WALES, OCC MEMBER, 1920

HRH Edward Albert, Prince of Wales, visited the OCC twice in 1920. The Duke taught him surfing on his first visit in April. On his second, in August, the Prince accepted Honorary OCC Membership.

WALLACE RIDER FARRINGTON, GOVERNOR

President Warren G. Harding appointed Founding Father Wallace Rider Farrington, Governor of Hawaii, in July 1921. Governor Farrington received a second appointment by President Calvin Coolidge in 1925.

FILLING LAGOON—MOVING BACK PAVILION, 1925

In 1925 while Joseph R. Farrington was President, the stream and Lagoon were filled in. Construction of the Royal Hawaiian Hotel forced the OCC to enter into a new lease which changed the OCC set-up considerably. The Big Pavilion was moved from the Beach back to about 150 feet of Kalakaua Avenue. It was raised to make room for new locker rooms, showers and bathhouses.

OCC AUXILIARY BECOMES ULUNIU

In 1926 the Women's Auxiliary of the OCC divorced itself from the Outrigger Canoe Club and became the Uluniu Women's Swimming Club, "Under the Growing Coconut Palms" Club.

INAUGURAL OF ROYAL HAWAIIAN

The Royal Hawaiian Hotel was inaugurated on February 1, 1927. Many OCC members were guests at the dinner, ball and to view the Pageant.

MAY DAY IS LEI AND OCC DAY

May 1, 1908, was Lei Day for OCC. May 1, 1928 was the first "May Day is Lei Day in Hawaii."

ROOSEVELT'S WAIKIKI WHITE HOUSE, 1934

Franklin Delano Roosevelt was the first President of the United States to visit Waikiki. He arrived aboard the Houston, with his sons, Franklin and John, July 26, 1934. Aboard a large double outrigger canoe arranged to appear as a royal canoe of Kamehameha the Great, was Duke Paoa Kahanamoku, an able deputy of the First King. This was one of fifteen canoes, mostly from the OCC, that greeted the American President off Waikiki.

Entertainments, ceremonies, and the like, filled FDR's Hawaiian Hours. At the OCC the Duke taught Franklin Junior and John to ride surfboards. On the day of his departure, the President stood on the upper lanai of Iolani Palace and made an Aloha address in which he said —“Aloha from the Bottom of My Heart!”

VICE-PRESIDENT GARNER, 1935

John N. Garner, the first American Vice-President to see Waikiki, arrived in 1935. He was enroute Philippines to attend the inauguration of President Manuel Quezon of the Commonwealth.

GENE SMITH, SURFBOARDER

In 1937, Gene Smith paddled his surfboard from Molokai to Oahu, about thirty miles in about eight hours. In October of 1939, Gene Smith surfboarded from Oahu to Kauai.

LT. COL. EISENHOWER IN HAWAII, 1939

Lt. Col. Dwight David Eisenhower, his wife and son John, spent ten hours in Honolulu and Waikiki on December 31, 1939 having arrived aboard President Cleveland from Philippines at noon, and left at ten in the evening.

NEW CLUB OF 1939-1941

“The Outrigger Canoe Club starts a modern part of its important career, this year,” I wrote in the September, 1939, Paradise of the Pacific. “Old buildings are razed, new buildings are raised, a new lease on constructive life begins; but the Club is carrying-on with its original determined will to see to it that outrigger-canoeing and surfboarding, in their original Hawaiian form, shall not perish from the earth.”

The New OCC was opened formally on June 11, 1941. The New Club Home was something to excite pride and admiration. This construction was under a lease which ran until 1963.

BIRTH OF “FORECAST”

The Forecast came into being as a postal-card in October of 1941. It was established by the OCC Entertainment Committee of which Ernest Warren Stenberg was Chairman. Member Ken Carney suggested the name. From postal-card to folder, to diminutive booklet, and at last in May of 1943 to what members read today. And there has been only one Editor—Ernest Warren Stenberg.

WAR COMES, DECEMBER 7, 1941

Hawaii was a lovely Paradise of Peace on Saturday, December 6, 1941. The Glorious Island of Oahu never was more serene. A somnolent Republic. Out there on an arc where the Sun sets were Japanese planes and torpedoes, ready and armed. They moved towards Pearl Harbor and Waikiki.

Sunday, December Seventh, is a date we, the living, all remember. OCC members did their full share in the war winning effort.

HORIZONTAL ATHLETIC CLUB

In the midst of war was born a strange array of horizontal humans—under the Banner of the Horizontal Athletic Club. An accident laid E. W. Stenberg horizontal with a fractured vertebrae. He was first member. Then came Herman Rohrig, George Unmacht, Murray Johnson, A. R. "Admiral" Tulloch, Howry Warner, Ken Hansen, George Mansfield, Fred Cordes, Bill Grabeau, Harry Clayton, Louis Perry, and many other card-carrying Prostrates.

MACFARLANE MEMORIAL RACES

When news arrived at the OCC that Walter James Macfarlane had died in June of 1943, the Club was preparing for a Fourth of July Aquatic Regatta. The decision immediately was made to name the Independence Day Regatta, in honor of Walter. So from that Fourth on, we have had the Walter James Macfarlane Memorial Races.

ELEANOR ROOSEVELT VISITS, 1943

Mrs. Roosevelt visited Hawaii twice in 1943. Once as she started out on a tour of the Pacific areas and again on her return.

FDR'S SECOND WAIKIKI WHITE HOUSE

After making his Acceptance Speech at San Diego in July, 1944, President Roosevelt visited Hawaii. In his Waikiki White House in the Navy-occupied private estate that became Queen's Surf, the President held a series of high-level conferences with American Military Leaders including Admiral Chester Nimitz, Admiral W. D. Leahy and General Douglas

McGUIRE AFB
NEW JERSEY

Dear Ernie:

Drove down to McGuire Air Force Base Tuesday evening from Ithaca, N.Y. (275 miles) to put in a few days Reserve Training and got caught in the storm that struck this area Wednesday.

The accumulation of ice on the telephone and power lines snapped numerous wires and broke telephone poles like match sticks. The Air Base has been without power since yesterday morning at 1140 EST. Consequently we did not have heat or light in any of the buildings last night. In fact there has not been any heat, period. The light in most cases has been from candles and flashlights.

Last night we assembled at the bar in the Officers Club to keep warm just like some of the OCC members do when it gets cold at Waikiki. It finally got so cold we had to crawl into the sack to keep from freezing.

When weather like they have been having this winter strikes, it is really rough on the poor natives. It doesn't bother us Hawaiians—we is Tuft Buggas.

Ernie, I wish to extend my sincere congratulation to you on your retirement. Now you will be in a position to put your entire effort behind the Horizontal Athletic Club activities.

Please give my best wishes to all of the old gang.

Aloha Nui,

BILL CAPP

P.S.—They evacuated the women and children to hotels in Trenton, N.J. yesterday afternoon and now they doubt whether they will have power tonight... Auwe.—B.

ERNEST N. MAY
WILMINGTON, DELAWARE

Dear Mr. Magill:

Again I want to thank you and, through you, the Club employees, for another series of happy weeks in and around their care. I missed you personally, not because I didn't glance into your office whenever I went by, but because I made no appointment. This I regret. Time passed too quickly!

The Outrigger does more than its part to make Hawaii so pleasant.

If you can find out for me, please, the real name of the crewman who was on skipping "Mac's" catamaran on the 3:45 PM trip the afternoon of March 28 I shall be grateful.

For reasons which Mac and he can tell you, I want to give the crewman a modest personal reward for some very quick action on his part, neglected asking him at the time and left Honolulu at the crack of dawn the next morning.

The man is about 6' 2"; 200#; very well-built and husky; probably 35 years old; is more Hawaiian in appearance but speaks English with a slight accent. This description is, of course, to help you; not to pass on.

Congratulations again on doing a beautiful job.

Sincerely yours,

ERNEST N. MAY

Dear Mr. May: Thank you so much for your very complimentary letter of April 10, I too am sorry to have missed you on this visit to Honolulu. Comments such as yours are always well received by our staff, and we appreciate you taking the time to write us expressing your appreciation of our efforts to make "Hawaii" so pleasant.

Mac tells me the crewman you refer to is Benny Beckley. If we can be of any further assistance to you, please do not hesitate to ask.

With kindest regards and Aloha,

Sincerely yours,

E. P. Magill

Two of his recent recordings were broadcast over KGU and the recording of the semifinal and the final tests will be sent to that same station in 60 days, so that his many friends may hear his voice.

Knowing how many of his friends are members of your Club he requested that I write you of his success.

ELEVEN EXPERTS TO SERVE YOU

Always favored sports—surfing and surfboarding at Waikiki.

SWIMMING

Waikiki is the easiest place in the world to learn to swim. The warm, shallow water and the absence of breakers along the shore give the novice a feeling of security and eliminates fear which is the main drawback in learning to swim.

Here many Olympic champions got their start. It is the home of famous Duke P. Kahanamoku. The Outrigger Beach Services have many competent instructors qualified to teach both young and old to swim or to perfect those who already can swim.

SAILING CANOES

Sailing canoes are available to those who wish the thrill of both surfing and sailing in the canoes in which the ancient Polynesians made voyages up to 3,000 miles over uncharted seas.

Waikiki is the home of the catamaran Manuwaia and others reputed to be the fastest sailing yachts in the world. Regular trips are made each day. The yachts carry about twenty passengers. Charter trips may be arranged for.

For information, reservations and rates, phone 99-1564.

Direct telephone lines are maintained by Beach Services and The Royal Hawaiian, Moana, and SurfRider Hotels.
