THE CLUB AND WAIKIKI, JULY-DECEMBER, 1925

By Edwin North McClellan

With my family I arrived at Honolulu on July 14, 1925, aboard the Matsonia (Captain John T. Diggs) when she docked about half past seven o'clock in the morning at Pier 15.

We had enjoyed a very pleasant cruise from San Francisco. There were many very interesting passengers among the 231—James D. Dole, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Dowsett, Enoch Lovell (Deputy Sheriff at Lihue, Kauai, for thirty years), and about thirty Mainland schoolteachers. Diving boys, lovely leis, stirring Hawaiian music, and a little liquid sunshine greeted us.

THE ANCIENT "LAGOON" FINALLY FILLED-IN

The lure of Waikiki Beach often pried me away from Pearl Harbor where I and the family occupied splendid quarters. The Moana Hotel with its long pier—good old neckin' place—was still there. The last timbers of the razed Old Seaside Hotel were being carted away. Thoughts of the good times at the Seaside in 1908, 1910 and 1913 filled my mind in the early days of this, my fourth visit to Hawaii. Theodore Hopkins of the Territorial Hotels Company, only a few days before we arrived on the Matsonia, had broken ground for the new Royal Hawaiian Hotel—on the site of the Old Seaside.

I found that the seventeen-year-old Outrigger Canoe Club was carrying on in the spirit of its founders. One of the founders — Joseph R. Farrington — was President of the Outrigger Club in 1925, having been elected on January 8th of that year. As described in the January (1951) issue of the Forecast, the project of filling up the Lagoon and other low ground of the Club had been started and we know this was completed before the end of the year 1925.

THE "NEW" OUTRIGGER CANOE CLUB, 1925

Building of the new Royal Hawaiian Hotel brought changes to the Outrigger Canoe Club. On the day after our arrival the Star-Bulletin of July 15, 1925, published a long announcement by President Farrington.

"Directors of the Outrigger Canoe Club have been requested to move off that section of their land which will be occupied by the new hotel (Royal Hawaiian) within the next thirty days," explained Joe Farrington.

The Directors at this time were: President, J. R. Farrington; Vice President, George Armitage; Treasurer, Warren Dease; Secretary, Allan J. McGuire; House and Ground, S. M. Stairatt; Order and Entertainment, Paul Leebrick, and Captain, "Dad" Center.

Carry-overs: Henry A. Asch and Leonard Withington.

"Under the lease negotiated by the new hotel corporation with the Bishop Estate," continued the announcement "they have taken over that section of the Club Grounds adjacent to the Seaside property, on which part of the Pavilion, the men's bathhouse, and the bathhouses of the Women's Auxiliary stand. The dividing line runs from the beach along the front of the men's bathhouses and straight back until it crosses the line of the present Seaside property. This will make it necessary for the Club to move the Pavilion now standing on the beach, construct new men's bathhouses, and for the Women's Auxiliary, to either move some of their bathhouses or obtain new quarters for their members." A campaign to raise thirty thousand dollars was started by the Club with the Women's Auxiliary cooperating.

"Teams of members (were organized) under the direction of Ernest T. Chase to obtain pledges from members which may be paid over a period of ten years," stated the announcement in the Star-Bulletin.

At a meeting of the Directors on Sunday, July 12, 1925, Hart Wood, Chairman of a Committee of Architects (consisting of Guy Rothwell, one of the earliest members of the Club, and Ralph Fishbourne) had been authorized to call for bids for the creation of the New Outrigger Canoe Club.

PAVILION MOVED BACK FROM THE BEACH

The plan called for the "Pavilion to be moved back into the filled land about 150 feet from Kalakaua Avenue," explained President Farrington. The Pavilion will "be raised to sufficient height to make room for the construction of new locker rooms beneath it"; and "one-half of the Pavilion will be for the use of men and the other for women . . . ; proper construction will be added on each side to provide showers and other bathroom equipment."

President Farrington further announced that the Club's grounds will be beautified; that the hau trees will not be disturbed, and that the "two hau-tree lanais will stand as at present." An encouraging note appeared in the announcement which stated that the Royal Hawaiian Hotel will assist the Outrigger Canoe Club and the Women's Auxiliary to meet part of the expense of moving. In conclusion, President Farrington explained that accommodations for canoes will be provided on the site of the present Pavilion on the beach but farther back from the water, "by erection of a distinctly Hawaiian shelter with the use possibly of a coconut-thatched roof."

I was a keen observer of this operation which moved the famous Pavilion from the beach back to near Kalakaua Avenue. And I read with much interest Don Watson's story in the Star-Bulletin of November 16, 1925, describing progress of the "New Club."

"Before another month has passed the Outrigger Canoe Club expects to have completed the first unit in a program of construction which will give it equipment, little dreamed of in the early days of the organization." The "new Bath-houses are under the old Pavilion, which has been moved off of the beach and back onto the reclaimed land just off Kalakaua Avenue. Before the Waikiki Reclamation Project went through, this used to be a wide stream which sometimes flooded Waikiki with muddy water. Through the efforts of the Outrigger Club, it has been turned into solid land and, where a pond once appeared, automobiles are now being parked and the Club's new home stands. . . . By the time the new Royal Hawaiian Hotel is completed in January, 1927, the Outrigger Canoe Club hopes to have completed the additional improvements which will equip it to carry on with better facilities than ever before its very distinctive work in the life of Honolulu."

PRESERVING BEACH AND BATHERS' RIGHTS

"Bathers at Waikiki are again up in arms because of the encroachment on the beach of property owners," reported the Advertiser of August 4, 1925. "When the Board of Harbor Commissioners meets tomorrow afternoon it will find in its correspondence a letter from Judge John A. Matthewman, former Attorney General and now representing bathers and others interested in preserving their rights at the famous beach." The letter of Judge Matthewman referred to "rights of the public to the beaches at Waikiki . . . difficulty of getting to the beaches . . . seawalls, buildings . . . in such a manner as to practically abolish the beach . . . public might walk along the wall . . . accretion . . . ownership of the new land. . . ."

"The Honolulu Chapter, American Association of Engineers, has undertaken a campaign that deserves the support of every loyal citizen in Honolulu," stated an Advertiser editorial (October 11, 1925). "And that is the creation and maintenance of a beach or beaches, in Honolulu that will be in keeping with the fame of Hawaii." The Advertiser of October 28, 1925, carried a possible promise of Attorney General William B. Lyman to take action against anybody "who may be in illegal possession of any portion of the beaches."

CANOE OWNERS, ATTENTION!

By order of the Board of Directors! All private canoes parked on beach in front of Club must be covered by tailored canvas canoe covers, covered with fire resisting paint in conformity with the style cover adopted by the Club. For information as to cost and availability of such covers see Fred Mosher.

CLUB BOUNDARIES

Where do the Club boundaries end? No one seems to know exactly and so the Directors authorized Manager Mosher to engage a surveyor to find out where our responsibility and authority begins and ends.

DELINQUENT MEMBERS

The ruling regarding the use of any privileges by delinquent members will be strictly enforced. If you are delinquent please do not attempt to use the Club and thus suffer embarrassment. All employees have been requested to strictly comply with enforcement of this rule.

OPERATION SEAWEED CLEAN-UP—After the three-day spell of Kona weather recently, the white sands of Waikiki beach became littered with seaweed. It took a beach-cleaning detail comprised of both junior and senior members of the Outrigger Canoe Club to rake the beach clean in front of the Moana Hotel, the Outrigger Club and the Royal Hawaiian Hotel. Left to right, Fred Mosher, manager of the Outrigger Canoe Club; David Moody, Gregg Jackson, Thomas Fink, Robert Sheffield, "Sally" Hale, head of the Outrigger beach service; George Brangier, long-time supporter of organized beach-cleaning services, and David Johnston. (Tsuzuki photo.)

OPERATION SEAWEED

Waikiki Beach, justly famous for its mild water, safe surf, cleanliness and many other attributes, is deviled occasionally, especially at Kona weather time with seaweed. Like the weather no one has ever done anything about it except complain. Finally at the instigation of George Brangier the Club Directors have appropriated money and taken on the task of having the beach adjacent to the Club cleared.

Under Sally Hale an outrigger canoe was rigged and a beach raking detail went to work. Members of the Club and of the Beach Services raked up tons of seaweed, piled it aboard an outrigger canoe, engine propelled, and took said seaweed out to sea—miles out for dumping. The operation was a success and will be repeated when the old offender gets too obnoxious again.

The operation covered all the beach front of the Moana Hotel, the Outrigger Canoe Club, the Uluniu Club and the Royal Hawaiian Hotel. This is another evidence of the leadership of the Club and the civic mindedness of its membership.

BETTER SERVICE ON HAU TERRACE

The popular Hau Terrace will soon be having better service. A Committee comprising William Mullahey, William Capp, Bob Fischer, Le Roy Bush and Duke Kahanamoku have been authorized to investigate and make recommendations toward improving service on the Hau Terrace.

MUSIC BY MUZAK

The Club is now under contract with Muzak to furnish music throughout the Club. The system has been in operation for about a month and seems to meet the approval of our membership.

VOLLEYBALL SPOTLITE

Each noon a team of so-called volleyball players appear on the courts. They are "Splash" Lyons and "Sarge" Kahana-moku. Their forte is tricking and befuddling their opponents—and often each other. They are comparable with that other duo who play afternoons, "Big Bill" Mullahey and "Capp". Bill and Capp rely on befuddling opponents with a line of chatter and one passing to win. It's not the heights of good v.b.—but it's hilarious to watch.

The University of Arizona and San Diego State football players were guests of some of our members and many worked out on the V.B. courts. (Note—the ham was not served them by the Club.)

OPEN DOUBLES

After a week's postponement due to inclement weather, the finals of the open doubles volleyball tournament was played on Sunday, December 23. Finalists were Gil Brightman and Pat O'Connor, Mark Auerbach and Bill Baird.

Brightman and O'Connor were victorious in two straight sets and are now heralded as Club champs. They replaced Bob Dolan and Jim Beardmore who did not enter this year. The new Club champs can adequately fill the vacated title, for their playing throughout the tournament was steady and of high caliber. They remained in the winners' bracket and ended the tournament undefeated. This is also the youngest duo ever to hold the coveted title. We look for many more seasons of fine playing from this pair.

As usual, the tournament produced a "dark horse" entry. This was the runner-up pair of Mark Auerbach and Bill Baird, both capable youngsters. Not even considered in seedings for tournament schedules these two started right out by knocking off the top-seeded team of L. Ackerman and W. Cook in their first match. A fine defensive team is this duo of Auerbach and Baird and must also be reckoned with in the future.

Pritchard and Muirhead, who copped third place, were a tough team to beat and proved it with their matches that went the full three games. Pritchard and Muirhead also took third place in the 1949-1950 tournament.

In viewing the tournament in retrospect, the volleyball committee can look back with satisfaction. All games were played on time, no forfeitures were necessary due to tardiness, few postponements were called, all games were well-refereed, and the players were well-conditioned and grand sports.

All hail the champs, Gil Brightman and Pat O'Connor!

Paul Dolan, OCC winner of sixth place in annual five mile surfboard races sponsored by Waikiki Surf Club. There were thirty-seven contestants in the race.

Surf 'n Sand

Christmas time is vacation time and what an influx of Juniors we have. The Club literally buzzed with them in December. The volleyball courts, the canoes and surfing particularly attracted them—and there were, of course, the usual number of man-meets-girl affairs.

CHRISTMAS DAY OPEN HOUSE

The traditional Outrigger Club Open House was held on Christmas Day at the Club house. As usual hundreds of members and guests attended.

Splash Lyons and his boys furnished sweet music followed by an innovation. Through the efforts of Ed Frank, Ted Welles and his orchestra gave a courtesy concert for an hour. Those who like boogie-woogie and jazz heard Hawaii's top performers of this type of music.

This orchestra is of the type that "sends them" and are "in the groove." The younger set at the Club and many others of the group have asked, "Can't we have them for a dance?" At any rate, opinion is divided as to whether such music is appropriate at a Christmas party but the division seems to be 95 percent for—5 percent against.

SHEPHERD MADE HONORARY GUEST

On the evening of December 5, 1951, General Lemuel Cornick Shepherd was formally presented an Honorary Life Guest Card to the Outrigger Canoe Club. This honor was bestowed by direction of the Board of Directors in recognition of General Shepherd's long and distinguished military career. It is the first such honor bestowed on anyone by the Outrigger Canoe Club.

OUR WELCOME GUESTS

As December brought its unusual quota of visitors to Hawaii so it also brought an unusual number of guests to the Club. ## KEIKI CHRISTMAS PARTY

Chalk up a real contribution for our manager, Fred Mosher. Fred dreamed up a new party which we predict will become a traditional annual affair of the Club.

On Friday, December 21, a party was given for the keikis. The program consisted of the landing of Santa Claus who arrived at the beach in the outrigger canoe "Eleu," captained by Sally Hale and Jerry, crew. Santa was picked up at sea from his amphibian jet plane and paddled ashore through the surf.

Arriving at the Club he was greeted by two hundred and ninety guests ranging from three years of age to ninety.

We suspect that some members present borrowed kiddies to bring—not bein' fathers or mothers in their own right. Santa then interviewed the keikis and passed out gifts to all youngsters present. Jim French did a wonderful job as master of ceremonies. Everyone joined in Christmas carols and a hearty dinner which included caribou meat, icicles, and other Northland viands.

Following dinner Santa embarked in his canoe again to prepare for a busy Christmas Eve. One mean little kid stayed all night on the beach awaiting his return. He didn't believe it really was old Santa himself.

The MAIL BOX

Dec. 15, 1951

Editor, Forecast
Dear Ernie:

Although my article in the December (1951) issue of the Forecast, on the 44th Christmas Party of the O.C.C., was somewhat imaginative, one modification of fact should be made.

Instead of three Thurstons (as stated) being present, there should have been four—Asa Thurston, Asa G. Thurston, Lorrin A. Thurston and Lorrin Potter Thurston.

EDWIN NORTH McCLELLAN

PLEASE HELP US REMEMBER

Colonel Edwin North McClellan, whose many historical articles of the Club and Waikiki in general have appeared monthly in the FORECAST, needs help.

Many of the old records of the Club have disappeared or been destroyed. He is trying to compile a list of the names of all of the Past Presidents and Captains of the Club and the dates which they served. Can you and will you help? To date the information on hand is as follows:

Presidents: Alexander Hume Ford (1908-.....), Sanford Ballard Dole (1910), J. P. Cooke (?), Percy D. H. Deverill (early 1925-.....), Joseph Rider Farrington, succeeded Deverill in 1925 to (?), Warren Dease (?), Ernest Tucker Chase (?), James Mooney (?), Captain (first name missing) Timberlake (?), Captain James D. Wilson (1930), Lorrin Potter Thurston (?), R. Q. Smith (?), Walter James Macfarlane (1937-41), Leslie Asa Hicks (?), Harold Augustus Mountain (?), Wilford D. Godbold, for last six terms.

Captains: Kenneth Winters (1908), "Dad" David Center (?), Ernest Podmore (?), Robert D. Fischer (1951).

Can you fill in any of the questioned dates or names, add to or correct the above? If so please address Col. Edwin North McClellan, c/o Editor, The "Forecast," Outrigger Canoe Club, Honolulu.

Young Dick — that's his last name — a junior at Punahou, member of the Out-rigger, is now a full fledged advertising man. His father has appointed him advertising manager of Winifred Dick enterprises, promoting the sale of their fine frocks and dresses. He was impressed with the value of advertising in this cultural journal and on another page will be found the first of their ads. That is the way to start—young. Good luck to you, Dick Jr.

Have you seen Richard—Richard Ota—who presides over the snack bar—do a nula? We did on Christmas morning at the beach party—we were going to say given—but we mean thrown by Hui Nalu. Richard is an artist spelled with an ending E. Some of these wahines could learn plenty of grace and hand gestures from him. He brought down the house—stopped the show—auwe!

We saw John D. Kaupiko do a hula and here indeed is a fine man a credit to the Hawaiian race. Others present were George Brangier, Toots Minneville, Dad Center, Duke K., Ed Frank, Fred Mosher, Kalakau, Molokai, Sally Hale and others too numerous to mention—not to forget the tourists with their cameras shooting film by the yard. It was as usual a party to stop all parties.

And the weather all of December was just what the Visitors Bureau advertises—each day like a day in June. The many visitors from the mainland literally drooled about it. A million dollars of advertising goes forth by word of mouth.

The Club had a banner month of activities. Starting with the Keiki party (Children's Christmas Party) our traditional open house on Christmas Day, it ended with a burst of festivity on New Year's Eve with the best party ever.

Movies will be shown on the following dates—FREE on the Surf Lanai at 7:00 p.m. for the youngsters on Friday the 18th of January and another group at 8:30 p.m. on Wednesday, January 23rd for adults. See display announcement elsewhere in Forecast.

Billy Haxton and Beryl Martin did it. They were married on Saturday, the eighth of December, at Parke Memorial Chapel. Following the ceremony a reception was held at Oahu Country Club. The ceremony and reception were attended by many of their friends from the OCC who wish them a long life and happiness.

You all know "Shorty" Logsdon, of course. Never was a nickname better bestowed. Shorty is really short. He is having a hard time to reach the phone since the phone cords have been shortened. It's a big laugh to the tall boys but it's serious for Shorty. The management is contemplating furnishing soap boxes—just for Shorty.

You folks who park in the Parking Lot—remember—the Club closes on Mondays and there is no attendant present. Please park your own car. It is inconvenient to find your car parked in front of some other member who observes the courtesies. We know you don't mean to be rude—but just forget. But how about remembering—MONDAYS?

NO MORE TERM MEMBERSHIPS

At a recent meeting of the Board of Directors it was decided that the Club would not accept any more Term Memberships. All memberships in the future will be on an open basis from month to month.

NEW YEAR EVE, 1951

The old year 1951 was given a farewell and 1952 ushered in by over two hundred members and guests at the New Year's Eve party. Many present stated that it was the best New Year Eve party ever held at the Club.

Fred Mosher presented an excellent dinner and wine list and the music was furnished by Renny Brooks, David Kaiwi and their boys. A floor show was given at 11:00 p.m. consisting of music and hulas and particularly comic numbers by the inimitable Renny Brooks.

In the small hours of the New Year the party closed with the strains of Auld Lang Syne and a "Happy New Year" wish ringing out.
