OUR AFFILIATED CLUBS

The OCC is fortunate in having relations with many of the finest Clubs in the USA and abroad. To acquaint our members with these Clubs we will run a series of articles on them from time to time. It is fitting that the series begin with the oldest, largest and probably the most famous Club of its kind in the World. (Editor)

THE NEW YORK ATHLETIC CLUB

By HORACE R. BIGELOW

(Member NYAC)

The New York Athletic Club, organized in 1868, is now the oldest and perhaps the most famous Club of its kind, not only in the United States but in the entire world. Originally, as its Constitution said among other things, "The objects of the Club shall be to promote manly sports, exercises, and amateur athletics of every kind and to encourage physical culture."

That was 83 years ago. Now in 1951 the Club has nearly 8,000 members. It remains a leading force in sport, particularly in track and field. BUT it has expanded and branched out, offering the membership every type of facility and service with innumerable conveniences.

The main city Clubhouse (there is another in the country), at 180 Central Park South on 59th Street, New York City, is fully a block long and faces beautiful Central Park. It flanks Seventh Avenue and West 58th Street. The building, 24 stories high, ends with a Solarium, equipped with Vita Glass, where members may enjoy the beneficial effects of King Sol both in Summer and Winter.

There are 196 single rooms and 36 suites to house the permanent and transient guests. The Main Dining Room and the Kitchen occupy the entire eleventh floor. The Grill Room, and five private dining rooms (the latter admitting of being "telescoped" into four, three, two, or one, as the occasion might demand), are located on the tenth, as is the enormous billiard room with its thirteen tables.

In addition, there are three private dining rooms on the 12th floor, the Colonial, the Green and the Manhattan

CITY CLUB HOUSE NYAC

Rooms. The 2nd floor, facing the Park, has the Tap Room, in attractive "Old English" architectural design. It has an air-cooling system, where light repasts are served during the uncomfortably warm Summer months in a moderated atmosphere calculated to attract and which maintains a temperature many degrees cooler than without!

The Swimming Pool, 75' x 35', with clearly marked lanes conforming to the Amateur Athletic Union's stringent standards, enables the swimmers not only to disport themselves enjoyably, but also permits swimming competitions and exciting water polo matches. There are Turkish Baths, with dry heat and steam rooms. There are health-giving lights, trained masseurs and a resident chiropodist. Also, chairs to laze in and an "off-the-beaten-track" rest-room to sleep and rest quietly.

The Gymnasium floor is also one block long. Above is a running track, just over twelve laps to the mile. Below are badminton courts and hand-tennis courts. Hand Tennis, a game invented

MARCH-JULY, 1925

By Edwin North McClellan

Editor's Note: In our last issue we ended the story with a Polo game between OCC and Hui Makani. Minvielle scored the only point for OCC. The story continues:

WATER POLO

"Wright scored two goals and Kaakua one for the Hui Makani in the second half, while the Outriggers were held scoreless." Final score in favor of Hui Makani, 4 to 1. Lineups were:

Outrigger Canoe Club: J. Muirhead, W. Muirhead, K. Makinney, G. Harris, T. Muirhead, A. E. Minvielle, Jr., K. Ross, H. Yap, H. Wood, N. Howell, and W. Chamberlain.

Hui Makani: Warren Kealoha, Henry Luning, Mel Peterson, Noah Kalama, William Cropier, Hiram Kaakua, Willie Keick, Charles Pung, Hayward Wright ("Sharkey"), Isaiah Kaakimaka and Keli Kanoa.

EDWARD L. DUVAUCHELLE

"Add that name to Hawaii's list of heroes, immortalized by deeds of self-sacrifice and heroism in the face of extreme danger," wrote Ezra J. Crane in the Advertiser of June 28, 1925. "For it was Edward Duvauchelle, in spite of opportunities to save himself, stuck" to the wreck of the Rose D. off the shores of Molokai on June 15, 1925. The "bravery and downright pluck of Eugene Duvau-chelle, 53 years old, and the Hawaiian youth, Kolo," who "swam five miles through a rough and treacherous sea to bring aid to the little shipload of terrified souls, has been told and re-told," but "without taking due credit away from the elder Duvauchelle and Kolo, Eddie Duvauchelle is the hero of the Tragedy of the Rose D."

VOLLEYBALL

"The Outrigger Canoe Club volley-ball team took care of its own again on May 6, 1925, at the Central YMCA Hall, when it defeated the Y-Team in two straight sets in the Hawaiian AAU Senior Volley-ball Series," reported the Star-

Bulletin, May 7, 1925. "Dad Center and B. Karratti were the stars for the winners. The Outriggerites were G. Center (Captain), F. Dunn, Deverill, Dease, Singlehurst."

"The Outrigger Canoe Club retained its championship honors won in 1924, in the Hawaiian AAU Volleyball League on May 27, 1925, by defeating Palama in the final game of the 1925 series by scores of 15-6, 9-15 and 15-7," stated the Star-Bulletin. Playing on the Outrigger team were Karakatti, Howell, Center, Muirhead, Singlehurst and Lambert.

HORSESHOE PITCHING

A "Horseshoe Pitching Contest" was staged as part of the Playgrounds Celebration at Atkinson Park, Kakaako, on Fourth of July, 1925, wrote the Advertiser of July 5, 1925. Governor Wallace R. Farrington opened the festival of game-playing. "They played everything but craps," explained the newspaper. "Horseshoes, indoor-baseball, marbles, jacks . . . obstacle races, greased-pole-climbing and pillow-fights." In the horseshoe pitching contest "Dad Center and Ben Clarke represented Theo. H. Davies," while the Outrigger Canoe Club also was represented. "The White-Collar lads went down to swift defeat in the horseshoe pitching," to the "Kakaako Champs."

HONOLULU AD CLUB

A kamaaina member of the Outrigger Canoe Club—"Professor Karl C. Leebrick—retiring president of the Honolulu Ad Club," turned over the affairs of the Ad Club to Tom Sharp (recently-elected successor)," reported the Advertiser, July 1, 1925.

ROWING

Outrigger Canoe Club members rowed on crews of the Myrtles and Healanis in 1925. Their names appear in the news-reports of the races at Hilo on the Fourth of July. In the Senior Event the barges James L. Tolbert (Myrtles) and Spark-Plug (Healanis) finished in a dead-heat. "Before reaching the turn, it looked like a runaway race for Healanis but here the famous Myrtle sprint was called into play and the Red Crew gained two lengths," and "'Yabo' Taylor, the Myrtle coxswain, made a perfect turn." The Myrtles would have won if Sammy Guerro (No. 5) had not caught a crab. The Myrtle Juniors with Gay Harris, stroke, opened the Regatta with a victory over Hilo and Healanis. Hilo won the Freshmen Event while the Myrtles were victors in the "Kid" race, in which race the Myrtles including George Harris, Jr. and Kahanamoku. J. Whittle and N. Whittle rowed on Healanis crews. Johnny Hollinger was coxswain for the Honolulu Girls. Other Outriggerites also were rowing.

(To be concluded)

JUNIOR DAY 9 July 1951

Without the assistance of the co-eds of the Harvard tour party our Junior Day would not have been the success it was because our youngsters felt the day was eternal, reporting for games at 2 p.m. instead of the usual ten o'clock opening. The day opened at two with volleyball games between teams composed of Helen Haxton, captain; Diane Johnston; Sue Wall; Gail Fassoth; Mary Stone and Barbara Purvis, winners of this series playing against Anita Berg, captain; Ginger Charlock; Joan Scott, Rosalie Lyons, Marlo Schneider and Mary Richards.

Helen Haxton's team, winners of the above series, played against the following co-eds and lost handily, 15-9, 15-9, to Lee Van Kuren, captain; Joan Augsburger, Penny Dippel, Joyce Fagg, Margie Hahn, Maureen Storm and Loretta Emercian. Captain Lee's team thereafter played once more and won 15-0 and 15-4 against Beverly Badham, captain; Linda Shoff, Laura Spencer, Gail Pitka, Betty Hallenbeck and Ginger Chubb, with Nancy Lang, alternate.

At the fishing-hoop-basketball throw Mike Baughman won against other youngsters scoring 7 baskets out of ten throws, with Helen Haxton scoring 6 baskets out of the same ten throws.

Pau these events all the youngsters enjoyed a wonderful buffet supper prepared by Manager Mosher and served by Maxie and his competent staff. At this supper "Dad" Center presented the Freshman crew the winning gold medals for their 4th of July race. They were Jackie Cross, Captain and Steersman; Chico Hansen, Billy Cross, Al Lemes, Billy Baird and Mark Auerbach, stroke.

Surf 'n Sand

At the Keo Nakama swim held on June 21 the OCC made a clean sweep in the 100 yard dash surfboard race. Our boys finished one, two, three as follows — Tommy Shroeder, Tommy Haynes, Paul Dolan. That was fine paddling fellows, keep it up.

The Junior Doubles VB Tournament should be terrific this year. The boys are out there practicing every day at the Club.

The Dinner-Dance honoring the Transpacific Yacht Club was a roaring success. It was a sell out. Elmer Lee and his orchestra furnished sweet Hawaiian music.

Looks as though Bob Values' "Kumu Club" has some new members. At least the boys are sporting plenty new shirts.

The Wahines are all excited over the new lockers. Plenty roomy — no more wrinkled clothes. Glad you like 'em, girls.

Paging Art Schofield—that new awning you yelled for is up on the Sun Deck. Hope you like it. No more drip—no more pilikia.

Lovely Wanda Grant is seen adorning the Club. With her is the attractive Jean Ormondroyd. Aloha to you both. Hello, Thad.

The Hawaiian Trio (girls) that plays during the dinner hour on Saturdays have proved popular. They stroll thru the dining room and cocktail lounge serenading guests at tables. Come down and request your favorite Hawaiian number. They'll oblige.

Manager Mosher says "these Juniors and Associates make me feel old." "They all address me as Mr. Mosher". He appreciates the good manners and respect—but says "I wish they'd call me Fred".

Take your choice of two fine dinner dances this month. One is formal the other informal. Better yet, attend both. See the schedule for details.

July was one of the biggest months for attendance, parties, visitors and activity the OCC has ever had.

LEONARD HAWKS WINS $100 PRIZE

The Committee to pick a winner in the OCC Song Contest composed of Frank Owens, Harry Nordmark, Rolly Wray and Buddy Peterson awarded the prize to Leonard Hawks. The name of the song is "The Old Outrigger Canoe Club" and lyrics and music are presented here for the first time.

Harry Nordmark, chairman of the committee stated that the choice was difficult as all songs submitted were good. Six manuscripts were eliminated as they had music from other songs. The choice was made from a final six and the committee finally decided on Hawks' words and music.

Hawks is a resident of Wahiawa, attended a music school in Oakland, California and has had several other songs as winners in other contests. A check for $100 has been sent to him as his award.

They picked winning song. Frank Owens, Harry Nordmark, Rolly Wray, Buddy Peterson.

WALTER "MAC" RACES RESUME

By Sam Poepoe

After a year of strained relations the Macfarlane Races returned to the Beach with Outrigger as sponsor and host to Healani, Hui Nalu, and Waikiki Surf Club. Great credit must be given to the Hawaiian Canoe and Surfing Association for its efforts toward making this year's 4th of July races the success they were. We also saw and welcomed the advent of the Hui Kalia, a new Canoe Club. Outrigger did not fare as well as some hoped, winning but two events, the Kid Crew and Freshman men's race, the former on a violation and the latter which was settled by the judges, in a subsequent meeting, on Sunday, July 8, 1951 ruling that the Outrigger Canoe Club had won the Freshman six. A race to determine who won second place was never run off, although Waikiki Surf Club had its crew on hand, but because of the absence of the other crews won the second place on a forfeit. According to my records Waikiki Surf Club, therefore, won the Macfarlane races with Hui Nalu, second and Outrigger Canoe Club third.

CO-ED RACE INNOVATION

A tremendous following watched these races and it was fascinating to note the interest displayed by the spectators. Among such spectators were the co-eds of the Harvard tour who later raced in the Intercollegiate events, 11 and 12, and came away with top honors. To them and their coaches must be given great credit for no "bottoms up" or turn overs by some dozens of crews which participated. Ample time and work was devoted to their proper training at the insistence of the writer and their remarkable showmanship and right coaching paid off. This race, incidentally, was won by a mixed crew of wahines, as follows:

- No. 1 Diane Carter
- No. 2 Margie Hoffmeister
- No. 3 Harrie Chiem
- No. 4 Joan Augsburger
- No. 5 Barbara Taylor
- No. 6 John Hollinger in W.S.C.'s canoe, the "Mallia".

MAHALO NUI TO ALL

No Macfarlane race is complete without a mahalo nui loa from this writer for the marking and checking of the racing lanes; the preparation, gathering, sorting and finally planting of the turning markers with their subsequent collection at the end of the races; storing of the race canoes at the close of the day and the final check to see that all equipment was in their allotted places.

First honors must go to Ah Kong Pang for his untiring efforts to see that all markers were properly flag checked and buoys chained and weighed. And to his committee for their devotion to him, a younger brother of Ah Kong who is engineer with the City & County; Bill Mc-

Cracken; Edric and Ernest Cook who so ably handled "Dad" Center's canoe, the Miss Veedol; Bill Prange and "Tommy" Thomas for assisting Ah Kong and for doing the work during the races and finally for seeing our three canoes were bedded down in their hangars. To Bill Capp for providing the necessary space for the racing canoes and for supervising the hard and tedious work of putting the canoes away with Warren Pranges' kokua. To Duke Kahanamoku for his willingness to coach but which the youngsters failed to take advantage of until illness forced him to retire. And finally to a very old friend who devoted his entire spirit and time to coaching when Duke became ill, "Dad" Center. It's difficult to undertake any coaching close to the end of any season but I know it paid off because "Dad's" 1951 record speaks for itself:

O.C.C. WINNERS

The Kid crew winners were composed of Tom Fink, stroke; Bobbie Daniels, Mike Baughman, Wendell Brooks, Bobbie Vierra and Chuck Schrader.

The Freshman six winners were Mark Auerbach, stroke; Billy Baird, Al Lemes, Billy Cross, Chico Hansen and Jackie Cross, captain and steersman.

O.C.C. took second place in both Junior and Senior wahine's races and third in the Junior 4 and Intermediate 6.

O.C.C. did not enter a Senior 6 in the Macfarlane races for 1951.

To those I have mentioned my mahalo nui, nui loa for a job well done, and if I have inadvertently omitted anyone who so ably assisted I extend my many thanks.

OLDTIMERS ENTERTAINED HONORING LUDY LANGER

On July 13, Eugene Guenther of Guenther and Langer, direct Buick dealers of Los Angeles gave a cocktail and luncheon party in honor of his partner and brother in law, Ludy Langer. Ludy was a world famous swimmer and represented the Hawaiian Islands in the 1920 Olympics as a member of the American Olympic Swimming Team in the middle distances.

Mr. Guenther gathered together the many old friends of Ludy and put through a Trans Pacific phone call to him. Each guest talked to him and Ludy broke down when the gang sang the Hui Nalu hymn over the wire.

Among those present were Gay Harris, John Hollinger, Panama Dave, Edric Cook, Dad Center, Bill Hollinger, Ainslie MacKenzie, Mrs. E. Fullard Leo, Leon Sterling, Sargent Kahanamoku, John D. Kaupiko, Judges Harry Steiner and E. C. Peters, Jim Ryan and Tough

Bill. Due to business engagements or absence from the city many other oldtimers were unable to attend.

The party billed as cocktails and luncheon lasted on until early evening as the oldtimers had so many reminiscences and experiences of time gone by to tell.

DUES NEWS

It's really news when a reduction is made in any service or commodity. The Directors of the Outrigger Canoe Club announced that the dues of Non-resident and Island members have been reduced to $12 plus tax, per year, effective as of October 1, 1951. Non-resident dues previously were $15 plus tax, per year and Island residents were $36 plus tax, per year.

The troop of girl musicians who have been so popular singing at the dinner hour on Saturdays will continue from 6:30 to 8:30 each Saturday night.

CANOE NEWS

Canoe storage space on the Ewa side of the walkway to the beach has been set aside and reserved exclusively for racing canoes and equipment.

The Directors of the Outrigger Canoe Club have authorized training tables for paddlers and active coaches at a special rate. This training table will be available for 10 days prior to future races.

To promote more and better racing, the Outrigger Canoe Club has authorized the loan of a racing canoe to the Healani Yacht and Boat Club to be used in the races to be held in Honolulu Harbor, August 19 and the Labor Day races at Kailua on September 3rd.

The Koolaupoko Lions Club is sponsoring canoe races to be held at Kailua on September 3rd, Labor Day. Many clubs will enter these races.

The Hawaiian Racing and Surfing Association held a meeting on Tuesday, July 24th, and elected the following officers: John D. Kaupiko of Hui Nalu, president; John Lind of the Waikiki Surf Club, vice-president; George Young of Hui O'Kalia, secretary; Pat Olds of Koolaupoko Lions Club, treasurer; and Sam Poepoe of the Outrigger Canoe Club, auditor.

MORE CANOE RACES

On Sunday, August 19th the Hawaiian Canoe Racing and Surfing Association will hold the Hawaiian Championship (Straight Course) Outrigger Canoe Races.

The races will be held in Honolulu Harbor just off Pier 2 and will start promptly at 10:30 a.m. and will end at approximately 2:30 p.m.

The following clubs have registered entries in the competition: Outrigger Canoe Club, Hui Nalu, Waikiki Surf Club, Healani Yacht and Boat Club, Koolaupoko Lions Club and Hui O'Kalia. Entries are expected from the islands of Maui and Kauai.

A comprehensive list of events has been agreed upon and is as follows — Senior six men—3 miles; Junior six men—2 miles; Freshman six men—1 mile; Senior four men—1 mile; Junior 4 men—1 mile; Senior six women—1 mile; Junior six women—1 mile; Boys under 17 six men—1 mile; Intermediate six men—1 mile.

THE NEW YORK ATHLETIC CLUB

in the New York Athletic Club, is played without racquets (but gloves!) on miniature tennis courts. There are dumb-bells and weights and parallel bars. There are rings and daily conditioning classes to keep "that waist line" down! There are rowing machines, bicycle machines and sundry gymnastic apparatus all aimed at keeping the member physically fit.

Fencers, boxers and wrestlers all have separate quarters. The handball players, the squash racquets and squash tennis fans all enjoy the use of indoor courts. There is a locker floor with nearly 3,000 individual lockers. There are two television rooms, one equipped with that "ante-deluvian" device . . . a radio!

The American Legion Post No. 754, limited to NYAC members who have served their country in its various wars, occupies sumptuous private quarters, including a balcony. Other intra-mural organizations, such as the Huckleberry Indians (who own a small island, too, in Long Island Sound!), the Niblicks and the Veterans (for members of the Club for 25 years or more!) all have luxurious private quarters.

Although the New York Athletic Club is primarily a Men's Club, the Ladies enjoy certain well-defined privileges. They may dine in the main dining room on the 11th floor and in some of the private dining rooms. Elsewhere the gentleman is sole lord and master! However, in the Lobby, two rooms have been set aside for the fair sex, a Ladies' Reception Room and a Ladies' Cocktail Lounge. (The latter is partially air-cooled).

NYAC also has a Travel Bureau and a Theatre-Ticket Bureau! We almost forgot the magnificent bowling alleys, the Club's own print shop and offices. . . . In summer time NYAC employs over six hundred men and women!

"Indoor Athletics" are also favored. There is a magnificent Card Room adjoining the Ninth Floor Lounge. Chess, Checkers and Dominoes have their addicts, while the Library boasts of nearly 20,000 volumes!

The Gift Shop, with seasonal expansions at Thanksgiving, Christmas and Easter, enables the fortunate member to purchase candies, fruit baskets, toys, flowers, emblematic club jewelry, exquisite perfumes, etc., right in the clubhouse, holiday gift-wrapped and delivered to the home. Turkeys, mince pies and other delicacies are provided when in season.

Quite a lot for your membership? But added to all these splendid facilities at no extra cost is the Club's delightful Eden in Westchester County, at Travers Island, Pelham Manor, actually abutting the shore and the cool breezes of Long Island Sound, some short fifteen miles from 59th Street. Here a forty-acre estate provides facilities for one thousand daily diners. There are eight tennis courts, a boat house, a trapshooting lodge (every year the Amateur American Trapshooting Championships at Clay Targets are staged on Travers Island), a Yachting Department, complete with separate clubhouse, a baseball diamond, a running track made famous by countless national, international and local meets, and parking facilities for nearly 1,000 automobiles. As many as 6,000 spectators have been present to watch the spectacular annual display of fireworks on the Fourth of July. Limited renting facilities for Summer transients also exist.

No wonder the fortunate NYAC member is proud to belong to so great an institution.

LADIES' LOCKER ROOM

Full length and one half length lockers have been installed in the Ladies' Locker room. It has been a difficult undertaking for several reasons. First the work was carried out of repairing the roof, painting and removing old lockers with as little inconvenience to the members as possible. Another difficulty was a shortage of materials, hardware and locks. We hope that the inconvenience experienced by the ladies will be compensated by the much better accommodations. Several other minor improvements will be made in the locker room. For locker rentals see the attendants in the lobby office.

JUNIOR AND ASSOCIATE TOURNAMENT

The new volleyball year, which runs from summer to summer, officially began with the start of the Junior and Associate tournament on Sunday, July 22. This is a doubles tournament and competition is going to be keen as 14 teams have entered. Favorites as viewed from this corner and at this early writing include last year's winners Jack and Bob Muirhead, last year's runners-up "Peanuts" Miller and Hal Henderson, and Pat O'Connor and Tommy Haine. However, many surprises are in the offing as all players are still young and still improving. Games are scheduled for Sunday mornings, starting at nine.

VOLLEYBALL AWARDS

As has been the practice the past few years, the annual awarding of medals and prizes to the various individual and team volleyball winners for last year will take place on the club premises August 20 at 5:30 p.m. All participants in the various tournaments are invited to attend. Refreshments will be served.

WAHINE VOLLEYBALL TOURNAMENT

The OCC has entered an invitational tournament sponsored by the Hui Haole. The teams are comprised of 6 wahines and games are played on Tuesday and Thursday evenings at the Waikiki Fire Station. At present our team has won 4 games and lost 1 by forfeit. The next game on tap will be against the league leaders, Hui Haole, who are as yet undefeated.

A trophy will be awarded the winners of the league. There are 8 teams vieing for honors. After the first round robin, the 4 top teams will conclude the season with a championship playoff.

The roster of the team is as follows:

Jack Ackerman, coach	Anita Berg
Anne Ackerman, capt.	Doris Berg
Eva Hunter	Carol Muirhead
May Borthwick	Barbara Dorsam
Jane Wylie	Pat Barker

It is good to see "Doc" Jim Beardmore back on the Club grounds again. Jim as you know suffered a bad back, one of those "sacred iliacs," and he is missed on the volleyball courts. However, he is doing a good job chairmaning the VB committee. Good to see you're back (pun) again, Jim.

BASEBALL HI-LITES

The Outrigger's softball team looks back at the season just completed with some satisfaction but more determination for next year. With a roster of but 14 players the team finished in third place behind the Territorial Tax Office and Bishop Estate, who took 1st and 2nd respectively.

On July 6th a banquet was held at Chungking Restaurant with the entire league in attendance. A good time was had by all and it was the opinion of the team that the OCC was benefitted by the spirit of goodwill and companionship that was very much in evidence. OCC Director Sam Fuller was called on to award the trophies to the league champs and runner-up.

Our team awarded batting champ Fred Nott and high scorer Bill Casey trophies. Highlight of the evening was the presentation of a canoe paddle to "low average" Barry Pritchard with the idea being that perhaps next year he will be able to meet the ball a little better by using the paddle.

The roster of the team follows:

Whiskey Barnhart, p and mgr.
Doc Beardmore, f and capt.
Alec Williams, 2b
Barry Pritchard, 1b and f
Jim Muirhead, 1b and f
Bill Bennett, 1b
Fred Nott, f
Warren Ackerman, f
"Small Jack" Ackerman, f
Bob Fischer, c
Bill Beers, f
Bill Casey, utility
Clarence Philpotts, ss
Charlie Kauhane, 3b
