BEAUTY AND THE BEACH

A recent visitor to Waikiki was the beautiful and curvaceous Miss Lynn Vincent. Miss Vincent was the winner of the M.G.M. Beauty Contest recently held in Australia. There were 35,000 contestants and Miss Vincent, the winner, was given a trip to Hollywood with stopover at the Royal Hawaiian Hotel in Honolulu. Charlie Martin of the Outrigger Canoe Club entertained her during her stay here and it is evident by the picture on the front cover that Charlie enjoyed the lovely lady.

PLANS FOR WAHINES

Plans and specifications are being drawn up for proposed improvements for Senior Women's Locker rooms. The contemplated additions and improvements mean a major investment and require a great deal of time and thought. Originally an estimate was made by a reliable contractor from a rough sketch of proposed changes. When the finished plans are ready, bids will be called for and if the cost comes within our budget, we hope that the work will be approved by our Directors.

BEACH SERVICES RESCUE

It was about 1:00 o'clock Thursday, April 19th, and "Tarzan" Smith with "Sally" Hale were, as usual, on the alert watching the surfers out at sea. Suddenly "Sally" said to "Tarzan," "Isn't that a board with a surfer away out there beyond the surf?" Glasses were trained upon the object and Gene "Tarzan" Smith said, "I see two boards." Still watching, "Sally" and "Tarzan" concluded that they were in trouble. "Tarzan" said, "I think I'll take my surf sled and go out." In a few minutes, "Tarzan," who is a strong paddler and surfer, was on his way and sure enough he found two persons caught in the current and rapidly being swept to sea. Miss Shirley Lawson, a visitor to Hawaii stopping at the Moana Hotel, had rented a board and paddled out to the surf. The sea was flat, the day was perfect, and gradually she drifted. Caught in the current, beyond her strength to stem, she was in trouble. Another surfer nearby on a board paddled out to help her. His name is not known, but he had all he could do to handle his own board without being able to help the Malihini surfer. When "Tarzan" arrived he brought in his own board as well as the two others.

The above episode is one that is repeated at the beach often. The Beach Services are constantly on the alert watching for surfers who may get into trouble. These rescues never make the headlines or the news.

Waikiki Beach and its surf are probably the safest waters for swimmers and surfers in the world. The trouble is that the swimmer or surfer enjoy themselves so much that they finally find themselves weary and worn out. When the crucial test requires endurance then they find they haven't the necessary power and experience to cope with the situation.

SPONSORING NEW MEMBERS

The membership committee of the Outrigger Canoe Club tries to do a good job in passing on the applications of prospective members. When an application is signed by a prospective member it also must be signed by two active members as sponsors.

Frequently the sponsors question, "Why does it take so long to get an application through?" and frequently the answer is that the sponsor failed in responding to the confidential questionnaire that was sent him regarding the qualifications of the applicant.

When an application is made, these confidential reports are mailed to the sponsor and a return addressed envelope is sent with them. All too often the sponsor does not fill out these reports and return them. This results in delay as the committee must dig up the information from other sources. Besides this information, Dr. Irving Blom interviews each applicant. A check-up is made on the financial responsibility of the applicant and other sources are checked for information.

Following this procedure the name must be advertised in the Forecast and later, after having been recommended by the membership committee, turned over to the Board of Directors for their approval. Should the application, due to lack of response on the part of the sponsor, miss a membership committee meeting or a Board of Directors meeting, it is very easy for several months to pass between the time of the application and the final action by the Board.

Dr. Irving Blom has done a difficult job extremely well for many years. There is no remuneration or praise given him. In fact, this is a difficult job, as upon him falls the brunt of criticism when an application has been turned down. Members should make it as easy as possible for him and his committee to perform their duties and appreciate the time and effort devoted to keeping the quality of our club membership at a high level.

Pioneer Polo In Paradise

By EDWIN NORTH McCLELLAN

"Polo historians will have to revise their story, for polo was first played in the Paradise of the Pacific on the Island of Oahu in 1880 and not on the Big Scenic Island of Hawaii in 1886," I wrote in the Advertiser, June 21, 1939. "A British Army officer brought a polo outfit to the Island of Hawaii and the first game was played on Christmas Day, 1886, on an unused cane field," records the program of the "1936 Inter-Island Polo Championship." This Hawaiian Polo Legendary, however, is twice upset. Read on.

FIRST POLO

"On Wednesday afternoon (November 3, 1880) was played a game of polo, the first we suppose ever played on these Islands," reported the Saturday Press of November 6, 1880, which may be found in the Archives of Hawaii. "To those who know anything of the grand game of 'hockey,' polo would be easily intelligible as it may be described as 'hockey on horseback'. . . . On Wednesday every man was mounted on the best steed he could procure; there were five players on each side and four games were played. . . . It would be a capital game for natives, especially those accustomed to bullock-hunting and we hope to see it naturalized here."

James Haig Mackenzie described other polo matches played in 1884 on the Island of Hawaii. "Clement Sneyd-Kynnersley came to Hawaii in 1882," wrote Mr. Mackenzie in Paradise of the Pacific magazine, June, 1940. "He was accompanied by his brother Ralph. I had arrived in Hawaii two years before.

"Having played polo in England the Sneyd-Kynnersley brothers decided to introduce the game in Hawaii. Accordingly, they imported English polo saddles from England and mallets and balls from India. These having arrived in Hawaii, the initial practice games took place about the middle of 1884 on an abandoned sugarcane field at Puehuehu, Kohala, Hawaii.

FIRST PLAYERS

"The players in this first practice game were: Sneyd-Kynnersley brothers,

Hubert Filder, Ernest and Fred Burchart, John Hind, Robert Hind, Charlie Kempster, W. S. May, Henry Renton, William John Brodie, James Haig Mackenzie, Robert Wallace who was Kynnersley's Plantation Manager, the Rev. Whalley called 'Parson' by us, and Desborough. We were all members of the famous old Kohala Club. I remember Major Jack Haley very well but not as a polo player. He lived in Honolulu.

FIRST MATCH GAME

"The first real match took place on Christmas Day, 1884," continued Mr. Mackenzie. "H.M.S. Constance (Captain Frederic P. Doughty) at this time was at Mahukona (port of Kohala). Captain Doughty and some of his officers attended this first polo match. Sides were chosen and the match was played. One of the players not actually playing did the umpiring. We used little Hawaiian ponies born and bred on the Big Island.

"After this first game we played regular games every week, on the same ground, weather and time permitting. . . . These weekly games continued on up to about 1890. Our playing was confined to the Island of Hawaii. We never played anywhere else.

"In the meantime, Louis von Tempisky had visited us several times. He played with us several times and learned the game. On his return to Maui he established the first Maui polo team about

OCC GREETES ARMY TRAINEES

On Friday, April 6th, 2,400 trainees for the army arrived on a troop ship. Much publicity was given the event and a great program arranged to extend the hospitality of the Islands.

The Outrigger Beach Services was requested to man the Ka Moi canoe equipped with a motor and tow a fleet of canoes out to welcome the troop ship. "Sally" Hale, in charge of beach services, set the time for the departure from the beach at 7:00 a.m. sharp. The Waikiki Surf Club was also asked to cooperate by sending out their canoes and furnishing some paddlers for Outrigger Canoe Club canoes which would be furnished. The Waikiki Catamaran Manu Kai was also requested to sail out on the welcome.

The Ka Moi was ready with its crew standing by at 7:00 a.m. Apparently this is too early for the boys to get up as the only response was from John Lind of the Waikiki Surf Club and Skipper Woody Brown of the Catamaran and Pamela Andersen of the Outrigger Canoe Club. Pam and John Lind turned in to give Woody a hand and the Ka Moi followed the crew to the Catamaran and then motored out to sea herself with Captain "Sally" Hale at the motor and Gene "Tarzan" Smith as crew. Miss Unbehend also went along as ship mascot.

The transport was met off the Outrigger Canoe Club and accompanied to her berth at Pier 40 by the Manu Kai and the Ka Moi. "Sally" Hale said that the scene was one of beauty. The morning was lovely, the sea was calm and the flying fish were in great evidence. Off the harbor entrance two fire tugs joined the escort and were later joined by a small Coast Guard cutter.

The tug Momi, with music and hula dancers aboard and later a lighthouse tender with Kent Ghirard's hula troop and musicians joined the flotilla. The GI's aboard the transport showed their approval by cheering their greeters. The fire tugs played two streams of water into a great spray through which beautiful rainbows were visible. Unfortunately no yachts or other small craft were present. It is hoped that the committee on arrangements for future events of this kind give the Club ample time to prepare for participation.

NOTES ON THE CUFF

Arthur Perkins, the great coach of the Polo Club, has stated that our member, "Bim" Wilson, is one of the finest polo prospects that he has ever coached. Bim is a natural athlete, having made a name for himself at Punahou in football and other sports.

They say that Johnny Black is a natural wet as he is the agent for an overhead sprinkler system.

"Panama" Dave, when describing the Manu Kai Catamaran, said, "That boat is modern and 'screamlined'."

Heard in the dining room, "For lunch, we gonna eat stripes" (tripe stew).

Heard on the beach describing a malihini who was walking stiff legged and heavy foot, one of our local lads said, "He was walking like he had on Corri-gan boots." We assume he meant Oregon boots.

At the Niumalu Hotel recently a request was sent to the popular orchestra by one of the guests to play a popular piece as follows: "How's to play that piece 'Beyond Belief?'"

The Lurline of April 16 brought back to the Islands Mr. and Mrs. Fred Cordes. Fred has a home in Berkeley and one in Honolulu. Business, unfortunately, he says, takes him away from the Islands but he is always happiest when he returns—so are his many friends. Ruth Veil returned on the same boat and has decided to make Honolulu her home and the Outrigger her club.

The many friends of Charles Amalu extend their deepest sympathy to him on the loss of his charming wife. They will miss her at the club.

Col. Edwin North McClellan upon his return from his trip to Japan, Korea, China and the Philippines emphatically stated, "Hawaii is the finest piece of real estate in the world."

KIKI GOES NATIVE

You have likely seen the tall dark man with the moustache on the beach adjacent to the Club. He has a microphone and interviews various people. You've wondered who he was and what it is all about.

KIKI, the newest Honolulu Radio Broadcasting Station, has made an arrangement with the Club and daily at 2:00 p.m. and until 4:00 p.m. the interviewer Clair Weidemaar roams the beach and assisted by William B. Meyers interviews malihinis and kamaainas on their impressions of Waikiki. At 2:00 p.m. the broadcast begins with music and at about 2:10 Sally Hale of Outrigger Beach Services broadcasts information on the condition of the surf, the weather, the water, the sunshine and other information pertinent to the beach. The service rendered is of value to those away from the beach as they can determine whether they want to visit the beach or not.

Beach events are also broadcast from time to time and information as to canoeing, surfing, swimming and the like. Both members and non-members profit from the advice and information given. The services rendered are given gratis by KIKI through our Beach Services. If you like the program call the station and tell them about it. If you have visiting friends who would like to be interviewed call or see Sally Hale at Beach Services, phone 99-1564, and arrangements may be made through him.

If you are on the beach and curious about what interviews are being made your portable radio will pick it up.

MacARTHUR'S SON AT WAIKIKI

Young Arthur MacArthur, 13 year old son of Gen. Douglas MacArthur, spent his first morning in Honolulu by surfing at Waikiki—just as any other youngster would do. He was accompanied by Lt. Col. Anthony Storey, his father's pilot.—Associated Press photo.

OCC ENTERTAINS YOUNG MacARTHUR

Young Arthur MacArthur in his first visit to the United States has had a thousand thrills. Parades, entertainment, new customs, adulation, new faces, and new sights have kept his young eyes open with wonder.

One of the outstanding experiences that he enjoyed was the swim at Waikiki and a canoe ride with the thrills of surfing extended to him and his party by the Outrigger Canoe Club. When young MacArthur appeared on the beach he was immediately made the guest of the Club and "Sally" Hale and "Tarzan" Smith, two of the best canoe men in the islands, took young MacArthur and other guests for a ride. The party was thrilled by the hospitality extended and complimented the Club for the wonderful experience. Following the ride the party went swimming. Below is an account from the Honolulu Star-Bulletin as reported by the Associated Press.

By the Associated Press

Young Arthur MacArthur, son of the famous general, was just another bather Monday morning as far as Waikiki surfers were concerned.

The 13 year old son of Gen. Douglas MacArthur strolled across the beach and took a dip.

Only a handful of the tourists recognized him.

But they made no fuss over the lad, spending his first day on American soil.

Arthur, bedecked in a coconut hat and leis, was accompanied by burly Lt. Col. Anthony Storey, his father's personal pilot. Storey never left the boy's side.

They entered the surf together, swam awhile, then walked out hand in hand.

The two arrived at the Royal Hawaiian hotel late in the morning. Arthur wore a plain white shirt and khaki trousers.

He was a typical wide-eyed youngster as he ogled the hotel's plush lobby.

They quickly went upstairs to a room divided them, changed into trunks and at to the beach in the bather's elevator.

They were greeted by several beach boys, and photographers.

Young Arthur said nothing.

VOLLEYBALL SPOTLIGHTS

Kane-Wahine Tournament

As the last tournament of the 1950-1951 volleyball season goes into its fourth week of play we find three duos still battling in the winner's bracket. They are: Rusty Thomas and Bill Capp, Ciss and Jim Beardmore, Flash Thompson and Gil Brightman.

In the losers' bracket and still in there pitching on six teams are P. Barker and J. Smith, P. Honl and T. Haine, A. Berg and E. Thomas, E. Hunter and R. Muirhead, B. Cook and W. Cook, B. Dorsam and B. Casey.

This tournament, brainchild of your former volleyball chairman "Tommy" Thomas, has really caught on and is followed with a great deal of interest, especially by the wahine members.

The volleyball committee takes this opportunity to request wholehearted cooperation of volleyball playing members in seeing that the rules as approved are adhered to. These rules were made with fairness to all and it is up to each player to do his part. Report any infractions to any member of the VB Committee.

SOFTBALL STRIKES

As reported in the last issue of "Forecast," the OCC has organized and is sponsoring a softball team. Using a nucleus from last year's team which was barely nosed out for the championship by the Bishop Estate team, this year's team looks even better. The team has been practicing regularly and to date has played three league games. Games are played Friday afternoons at 5:00 p.m. in Kapiolani Park just off Monsarrat Avenue. Come out and root for OCC.

Bill Barnhart is player-manager and Dr. Beardmore is captain.

The roster of the team is as follows: R. Fisher, C; W. Barnhart, P; W. Bennett, 1B; B. Pritchard, 1B and F; J. Conant, Scorer; J. Muirhead, 1B and F; A. Williams, 2B; Kauhane, 3B; C. Philpotts, SS; W. Achuman, F; J. Beardmore, F; L. Achuman, F and C; W. Beers, F; W. Casey, Utility; F. Nott, F.

Players of the team are competing for two trophies to be awarded at the end of the season. One trophy will be for the individual having the highest batting average. The other trophy for the individual scoring the most runs.

CANOE RACE ACTIVITIES

The training for canoe races on Kamehameha Day and July 4th began with workouts on April 22, 1951, with Hui Nalu turning out four work crews under the able coaching of John D. Kaupiko, Sr., and Waikiki Surf Club with almost as many with Wally Froiseth as head coach. Such a report can not be made for the Outrigger Canoe Club although Duke and Sam Poepoe were present; however, two men did practice and they were Tommy Haine and Mark Auerbach.

In spite of our bad showing on the above date the Club can show that on April 8, 1951, the following did limboing and paddling with Mark Auerbach at one, Paul Dolan at two, Andrade at seat three, Haine at position four, Ed Greaney in seat five, with Tommy Schroeder, steersman. An hour later the following, using the Honaunau again occupied the following seats: 1, Ronny Sorrell; 2, Chuck Schraeder; 3, Pat O'Connor; 4, Randy Worthington; 5, Charlie Martin, and 6, Jack Cross, captain and steersman. During the week of April 11, 1951, these men had another practice run with Marck Auerbach at one, Martin at two, Schraeder at three, Richard McGill at four, John Russell at five and Jack Cross as captain and steersman. On Sunday, April 15, an entirely different group except Paul Dolan, steering, took the following positions: 1, Lono Kanahele; 2, Archie Kaana; 3, Lindy Sutherland; 4, Paul Dock, with Bill Goodheart at No. 5.

Potentially the Club has a most able coaching staff consisting of Duke Kahanamoku, Head Coach; with Tommy Arnett, Tommy O'Brien, Warren Ackerman to assist with the Senior and Junior boat coaching and training; and Sergeant Kahanamoku to handle the Freshman and Kid crews.

But where are the paddlers?

POLO

1887. The people-of-means on Maui took up polo with great interest. Among these were Frank and Harry Baldwin, David Fleming, von Tempsky, and others. About the same time teams were developed on Oahu and Kauai."

Mr. Mackenzie's polo-facts are corroborated for in the Advertiser of January 5, 1885; we read that "the Gentlemen residing in the portion of the District known as Outside, have gay times every week playing polo," at Kahala, "a sport requiring good sportsmanship and nerve, both of which most of the participants possess." The Advertiser (August 18, 19, September 3, 1884) shows that H.M.S. Constance (Doughty) arrived at Honolulu from San Francisco on August 17, 1884, and sailed for Hilo on September 2, 1884.

Keep researching, friends, for maybe there is an earlier Hawaiian polo date as unearthed so far.

SPEAR FISHERMEN WARNING!

You are warned that you MUST NOT carry spears unprotected upon the grounds or adjacent to the OCC. Spears MUST be protected with a cork or similar guard at all times when in these areas to avoid accidents.

CLUB SONG CONTEST

The Club is still looking for an appropriate Club song. Mr. Harry Nordmark has been appointed Chairman of the Club Song Committee. He will choose his own committee members and announce rules and appropriate prizes. Watch the Forecast for details.

Mr. E. W. Stenberg, Editor
The Forecast

Dear Mr. Stenberg:

The attached is for your information and is self-explanatory. I would appreciate your passing it along to Duke with kindest regards.

Furman Bisher, Sports Editor of the Atlanta Constitution, was stationed in Honolulu during the '17 War; that is, the last one. Furman was acquainted with quite a number of the newspaper people and enjoyed his stay.

I am passing along each month the Forecast so that Furman can keep abreast of the activities of the club.

Please remember me to "Dad" Center and the old timers on the '24 and '28 Olympic teams.

With kindest regards, I am

*Sincerely yours,
HARRY*

Thanks for the letter and story, Harry. Duke is still in perfect condition and "Dad" is still playing volleyball, swimming, coaching, surfing, sailing and fishing.—The Editor.

THE DAYS OF WEISMULLER AND KAHANAMOKU

The Glancy family has been in water up to its ears since Harry was a young fingerling in Kentucky. His aquatic past was spent in the company of swimming kings, and he was one himself, the fourth member of the 1924 and 1928 Olympic championship relay team that featured Johnny Weismuller, Buster Crabbe and Duke Kahanamoku, the three greatest swimmers of their day.

They came along at a time when Tarzan pictures were in vogue, and the normal course of a famed swimmer was a dive from the Olympics into the movies. Weismuller came first and Crabbe right behind him. Kahanamoku, however, had no such ambitions. The giant Hawaiian always went home to his beloved islands, where he found worshipful followers of another sport.

Kahanamoku was and is a fabulous figure in Hawaii. He began breaking world swimming records in 1913 and his active career lasted until the '30s. The middle generation may still remember the cigarette posters that featured the cocoa-skinned Polynesian who preferred a Lucky instead of a sweet.

Servicemen stationed in the Hawaiians the last war remember the tall, steel gray giant who made his weekly appearance each Sunday on the beach at the Waikiki Outrigger Canoe Club. And they heard the song the natives sing that includes this reverent passage: "Duke Kahanamoku, the world's greatest swimmer..." The Duke is still a king in a sort of a way, the sheriff of Honolulu County, largest county in the world. It covers many thousand square miles of the Pacific Ocean.

THE OLD FISH WEREN'T FAST ENOUGH

Great as they were, Weismuller, Crabbe and Kahanamoku have been completely erased from the world and American record books. The flashing fins of the later generations have wiped them out. Fact is, the oldest records that still hold water date no further back than 1933, to Jack Medica and Leonard Spence.

"That doesn't dull Weismuller's record to me," Harry said. "Only reason he didn't swim faster is because he didn't have the competition. In other words, there weren't as many good swimmers to push him, and that's what makes records."

PARKING INFORMATION

Attendants are present at the Parking Lot every day from 8:00 a.m. until 10:00 p.m., excepting on Mondays. Some members do not realize that Monday is the attendants day off and leave their car in the entrance. This inconveniences other members and those in the habit of doing this are asked to PARK YOUR OWN CARS ON MONDAYS, and take your key out of the ignition lock.

Saturdays, Sundays and Holidays only those members who are on a monthly parking basis are permitted to use the parking lot. Other days members not on monthly basis may park for a nominal fee. Monthly basis parkers are requested NOT to invite guests in the guests' own cars to use the club parking lot. It cannot be permitted. If you have guests bring them in your own car.
